Resignation Of De Gaulle Urged

PARIS (AP) — Strikes snowballed rapidly across France in a wave of social ferment today and the nation approached total paralysis.

Pris was at a virtual standstill with not a bus, subway or train moving. Housing-wives rushed to stock up on food.

Joining the walkouts amid calls for the resignation of President Charles de Gaulle were workers on coal mines, automobile factories, ports and airports. Even war widows and war veterans joined the movement with demands for higher pensions.

De Gaulle conferred with top ministers yesterday but took no immediate action. He had returned home early from his official visit to Romania Saturday.

The number of workers off their jobs ballooned into the millions. Hundreds of business concerns were closed down either by worker walkouts or because of the paralysis of transport and other services.

Garbage piled in the streets of Paris. There have been no collections since Saturday because of a strike of garbagemen and streetcleaners.

Thousands of workers occupied the big Peugeot auto factory at Sochaux in eastern France near the Swiss border. All of the government-owned Renault auto plants have been occupied since Friday.

The 22,000 workers of the Michelin tire factory at Clermont Ferrand in central France went on strike and occupied the premises.

Striking Marseille dockworkers ran red flags to the tops of masts of all French ships. The 3,000 dockers of neighboring Ciotat were also on strike.

About two-thirds of the 65,000 workers at various Citroen auto plants around the country were unable to work.

In Paris, lines formed in front of some banks even before opening time. Bank employees got strike orders Saturday. The Bank of France delayed the opening of the foreign exchange market.

Electricity workers in Paris continued to provide power although they have occupied the factories since Saturday night.

Most miners were out. The 45,000 coal miners of the North Basin joined the strike of their comrades in Lorraine.

The 10,000 men of the Alsace potash mines and the 7,000 men of the mines in the Blanzy Basin, central France, were also out.

Guilty Plea By Truax To ABAG Theft

OAKLAND (AP) — Thomas Truax pulled a surprise by pleading guilty today to grand theft of $461,000 in funds of the Association of Bay Area Governments.

The 26-year-old official of the regional government group spent the money gambling, and was a big time patron of the Las Vegas casinos.

The possible sentence would range from 1 to 10 years.

Truax faces arraignment tomorrow in federal court in San Francisco on charges of transporting stolen federal checks. These funds were the ones on which he entered today's guilty plea.

Harriman Again Appeals To Reds To Quit Propaganda, Get Talking

PARIS (UPI)—U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriamn today called on Hanoi to quit making propaganda and get down to serious Vietnam talks.

The U.S. envoy made the statement as he left the South Vietnamese consulate after a one-hour meeting with Saigon's ambassador to Washington, Bui Diem. He was accompanied by his deputy, Cyrus Vance.

Harriman said Washington and Saigon are in full agreement that it is up to Hanoi to decide now whether serious negotiations should start in place of the propaganda broadsides that marked this first three meetings last week with North Vietnmese envoy Xuan Thuy.

"We had a very frank exchange of views on the conference here," Harriman said of his talk with Diem. "We agreed we should adopt an affirmative attitude rather than get involved in propaganda."

Asked about reports that Hanoi has predicted no progress before June, Harriman said he "deplored" the fact Thuy is "making propaganda" in the Paris talks. The talks will resume Wednesday.

Harriman said one subject he and Diem discussed was formation of the new South Vietnamese government headed by Premier Tran Van Huong.

Diem said their meeting was "part of our regular consultations." He said he and Harriman agreed on all points discussed. Earlier, American officials said the United States is more determined than ever to continue bombing North Vietnam until Hanoi proves its wiflingness to scale down the war.

Three factors have convinced the United States it would be suicidal to stop bombing North Vietnam before Hanoi shows some "restraint" on its part.

They are:

Hanoi's refusal to admit North Vietnamese troops are in South Vietnam. To U.S. eyes, this makes the American-North Vietnamese talks here appear unrealistic.

North Vietnam's dispatch of more men and arms to South Vietnam at a record or near-record rate.

Izvesta Levels Spying Charge

The official Soviet government newspaper charged that his mission is "to carry out psychological undermining and intelligence activities."

Lodeesen, a specialst in Soviet internal political affairs, has been with the U.S. Embassy here for about two years.

The attack came just six days before he was scheduled for transfer to Brussels.

Reagan Plans To Cut Middle Income Taxes

U.S. READY TO ACT IN REDWOOD PLAN

Udall Says Administration Will Go Along With Senate Plan On 66,000 Acre Park Area

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall said today the administration would go along with a Senate plan to create a 66,000-acre redwood national park in Northern California.

Udall also said the administration would "reluctantly" agree to the exchange of government- owned timberlands for privately owned redwood stands now expected to cost $117 million.

The Secretary, noting that President Johnson had given the park proposal the "highest priority," told the House Interior Committee that the administration proposal for a 44,000-acre park was "feasible and eminently worthwile."

"But if Congress chooses to create a larger park, this would be acceptable." he said.

TITLE TO LAND

Udall recommended that any bill approved by congress provide for a "legislative taking" of the private lands. This would mean that title to the land would immediately go to the government, with price negotiations to follow.

Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman, scheduled to testify tomorrow, was expected to affirm Udall's statement agreeing to exchange of lands administered by the Forest Service for private lands.

The exchange of land from the so-called Northern Redwood Purchase Unit was justified on grounds it was needed to keep timber operators from being put out of business if their land is purchased for a park.

NOT HIS OWN

Udall, reading a statement which he emphasized was the administration stand rather than his own, told the committee that it was a long-standing policy to keep national forest lands intact but that the redwood park proposal was "unique."

If Congress found it "absolutely essential" to exchange the lands, he said, the administration would not object if it were made clear that it was not intended to set a precedent.

Both Chairman Wayne N. Aspinall, D-Colo., and Rep. Roy A. Taylor, D-N.C., chairman of the National Parks Subcommittee, said the administration stand on the question was "sound."

Asked by Aspinall to come up with an "honest, realistic sum" that might be needed to create the national park, Udall replied it would be "roughly in the region of $65 million," if the land exchange was made.

Aspinall then demanded whether the administration "takes umbrage" over the committee's stand that "there won't be any redwood park" if legislation now pending to expand the Land and Water Conservation Fund is not passed. Udall said the ad-

Says State's Fiscal Position Is Brighter

SACRAMENTO (AP)— Gov. Reagan announced plans today to cut state income taxes by $35 million next year, mostly in the middle income bracket that was hardest hit by the big tax boost this year.

Reagan said the cut was permitted by a brighter-than-expected state financial postion.

The state is collecting $35 million more this year than had been forecast. That figure will increase to $76 million during the fiscal year starting July 1, Reagan said.

His office made the announcement in a statement just as Finance Director Caspar Weinberger presented the new figures to the Senate Finance Committee in a private session.

Weinberger said the state is expected to wind up with an unexpected surplus of $42 million next year compared with the earlier forecast of a deficit million. This depends on passage of several cost-cutting bills proposed by Reagan in the legislature.

The suddenly bright financial picture was caused by Reagan administration savings and unexpected drops in the cost of the state's welfare and medical care programs, Reagan said.

COSTS OF MEDI-CAL

Democrats have insisted for months that the administration had overestimated the costs of Medi-Cal.

Inflation and other factors boosted income this year by $43.3 million more than expected, Weinberger said. But expenses are running $10 million more than planned.

Reagan and Weinberger said the unexpected windfall should not be used for new spending programs. Rather, it should be used to make certain the new $5.7 billion budget —scheduled for debate in the Senate Tuesday — is balanced.

TAX INCREASE

Also, Weinberger said, "It is apparent that last year's income tax increase is producing more revenue than anticipated, even allowing for the overheating nature of the economy.

"For that reason, it is both fair and equitable to revise this tax in order to return the $35 million to those taxpayers who were hardest hit last year."

Details of how this will be done still are being worked out, he said.

The Assembly still is working on its version of the budget, expected to be larger than Reagan's and the Senate's version. Ultimately a compromise will be hammered out in a two-house conference committee.

Increased income from taxes could jeopardize the cost-cutting

Marines Resist Communist Push

SAIGON (UPI)—Communist troops mounting one of their heaviest threats along the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) to coincide with the Paris Vietnam talks ran into stubborn resistance from U.S. Marines and lost an estimated 600 dead in a series of sharp battles, U.S. military spokesman said today.

The fighting centered yesterday near Khe Sanh, Con Thien and in a jungle area 20 miles southwest of DaNang. The heaviest damage inflicted by the North Vietnamese came at Camp Evans — jumping off place for the recent A Shau Valley campaign — with heavy rocket and mortar attacks

U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman in Paris has proposed a Communist withdrawal from the DMZ and restoration of the neutrality of the zone as a first step of de-escalation that could lead to peace talks. Instead the North Vietnamese increased their attacks along the border.

The biggest battle was around the North Vietnamese jungle fortress 20 miles south of Da Nang where U.S. and South Vietnamese troops counted at least 401 Communist dead in a five day fight. The U.S. Marines lost 65 dead and 250 "wounded" —many of them victims of the 100 degree heat.

The Communists launched their rocket attack on Camp Evans just below the DMZ last night, firing huge 122mm rockets which touched off a fire, caused "heavy" damage to ammunition stores and "light" damage to fuel stores and other war materiel.

Extent of the damage was not reported but such losses are serious because of the difficult supply problem there.

Near the Marine fort of Khe Sanh, just under the North Vietnam border, Leathernecks yesterday killed at least 126 Communists in two fights. In one, a Marine supply convoy charged through Red rocket, mortar and machinegun fire clogging a mountain pass and killed 66 North Vietnamese.

In the second, Marines Killed 43 North Vietnamese who tried to overrun their post just outside Khe Sanh, the U.S. bastion that withstood a three-month siege earlier this year.

At the nearby Con Thien base, Marines killed 16 more North Vietnamese. The Khe Sanh-Con Thien battling killed 12 Marines and wounded 47.

U.S. military commanders said the North Vietnamese are making one of their greatest threats to the northern provinces of South Vietnam, switching the main war arena from Saigon. In the capital area, U.S. troops yesterday killed 108 Communists in mopping up after a Red try for the past two weeks at invading Saigon.

Fortune Teller Right

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A fortune teller once told divorcee Myrna Odell she would marry a millionaire and be famous before she was 32.

Firestone

Mrs. Firestone

Today her age was still her secret but she is the new Mrs. Russel A. Firestone Jr., wife of the millionaire heir to a tire company fortune.

Yesterday, during a thunder and lightning storm that marooned the 21-member wedding party in the church for half an hour after the wedding, the reporter married the man she met during an interview for her newspaper.

The bride's father, airline pilot Peter Odell, was best man. Her sister, Joan, was maid of honor.

It was Firestone's fourth marriage and his new wife's second. Her first marriage ended in divorce. She has two daughters 11 and 10.

Take Village

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Four companies of Communist Pathet Lao forces have occupied a village on the Laotian border with Thailand, apparently to clear the way for smuggling arms into Thailand, Laotian military sources said today.

Tanker Deaths

KOCHI, Japan (AP) — Rescue workers recovered three bodies today from a Japanese tanker which capsized in rough seas off this southern Japanese city on Shikoku.

Rescuers earlier cut a hole into the hull of the No. 16 Hozan Maru and rescued one of five crewmen trapped in the 230-ton vessel for 30 hours. Officials said a giant crane vessel lifted the stern of the tanker out of the water and the hole was cut through the exposed hull.

136-Years-Old?

MOSCOW (AP) — Shirali Mislimov, who lives in Barzavu Highland village, is 136 years old today, according to Tass, the official Soviet news agency.

Mislimov reportedly is seldom ill, has sound vision and hearing, and often does outdoor work.

In the same district, with a population of 37,000, says Tass, there are 80 other peasants over 100 years of age.

Exchange Fire

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Jordanian and Israeli forces exchanged fire twice across the River Jordan today, a Jordanian military spokesman said.

He claimed the Israelis were first to open medium machine-gun fire in the direction of Jordan forces at Manshia, in the northern Jordan Valley. The Jordanians returned the fire, which continued sporadically for 25 minutes, the spokesman said.

Last Act

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Samuel H. Shapiro took over today as Illinois' 34th chief executive following the formal resignation of Gov. Otto Kerner.

Kerner's last official act was to address a handwritten letter of resignation to the people of Illinois yesterday, declaring he would be "indebted forever to my fellow citizens who placed such great faith and trust in me."

Fractures Wrist

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP) — John F. Kennedy Jr., 7-year-old son of the late president, yesterday was reported recuperating at a weekend retreat near here after fracturing his left wrist when he fell off a pony.

A spokesman at Morristown Memorial Hospital said young John was brought to the emergency room Friday evening by his mother, Jacqueline Kennedy. They were ccompanied by a Secret Service Agent and a chauffeur.

Still Searching

LONDON (AP) — Alger Hiss, former Sttae Department official convicted of perjury in 1950, said yesterday he still is searching for evidence to disprove that he sold U.S. secrets to the Communists.

Hiss, who served three years in prison, said Sunday, "My lawyers and I are still following leads and evidence."

Hiss is now employed by a New York printing firm.

Hiss said he is convinced that he will eventually be cleared.

By Two Names

LONDON (AP) — Baroness Audley is known as Mrs. Rosina MacNamee when she presides over the kitchen at the Marlorough Tavern in the working class district of Camden.

"I had to take the job to help out with the rent," the 57-year-old baroness said yesterday.

The baroness commented to an interviewer, "The money I get when I go to the Lords doesn't go that far." Peers receive $11 for each parliamenary session they attend.

Visions Death

CAIRO (AP) — Fifteen people were trampled to death when huge crowds swarmed around St. Michael's Coptic church last night hoping to see a vision of the Virgin Mary, police said.

The vision was reported to have appeared in one of the church windows.

Volunteers Help Build Capital Camp

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eager volunteers working late into the night helped the Poor People's Campaign more than double the size of its "Resurrection City, U.S.A." over the weekend, setting the stage for possible major demonstrations early this week.

With more than half the projected 3,000 residents now housed in their West Potomac Park quarters, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has for the first time a sizeable nucleus of demonstrators on which to draw.

STAFF SESSION

Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, SCLC president, is to huddle with his staff today for a strategy meeting that could well last until nightfall. Exactly when and where to demonstrate is one of the topics on their agenda.

Only sudden rain squalls prevented organization of a previously unannounced march around the Capital yesterday afternoon, said Rev. Andrew young, executive vice president of SCLC.

The 36-year-old minister told newsmen he felt the week-old campaign is doing "extremely well" so far, "stirring the conscience of America . . . America is talking about poverty as never before."

RUSH CONSTRUCTION

Negro and white volunteers had pushed construction of the tent-shaped plywood huts that make up most of the city about half-way down the mile-long stretch from the Lincoln Memorial to the Washington Monument by last night.

Neither a searingly hot morning sun nor the afternoon's blustery rains kept busloads of new arrivals from pouring into the shanty city with their battered suitcases, bedrolls and blankets.

Most had been part of two large groups, the 1,000-man Midwestern caravan which arrived Saturday night and was housed in the District of Columbia Coliseum, and the 825-man Northeastern caravan housed for two days in suburban Maryland churches.

New Phone Contract Wins Nod

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO Communications Workers say telephone installers, who earlier rejected a new Bell System pact, have ratified the contract in a second vote.

The union's Washington headquarters said yesterday the mail ballot count was 8,719 for the three-year contract and 6,347 against.

Some 23,000 installers had been involved in the nationwide walkout, along with about 175,000 other telephone workers in about 40 states.

The union said the Michigan Bell unit, which also had turned down the pact earlier, voted 7,111-5,208 for it the second time.

Most of the installers had been back at work pending the second vote results. Some Michigan union members had remained on strike.

The pact includes boosts in wages and fringe benefits totaling nearly 20 per cent over its three-year life. The installers averaged $3.27 per hour before the strike, compared with a pre-walkout average of $2.79 for other Bell workers.

The union said Western Electric Co., the Bell subsidiary for which the installers worked, was officially notified Sunday of the new vote.

Columbia Beginning Rioting Punishments

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University says it has started disciplinary action against students accused of taking part in campus disturbances over the past several weeks.

Henry S. Coleman, acting dean of Columbia College, a unit of the university, said yesterday about 25 letters had been sent to students of that college telling them:

"You are charged with participating in the recent demonstrations which started on April 23, 1968."

The students were given deadlines running from Tuesday afternoon through Friday to appear at the dean's office or face suspension.

The letters were the first of more than 500 expected to be sent to student protesters in the next few weeks. The Ivy League school has a total student enrollment of about 25,000.

Mark Rudd, 20-year-old Columbia College junior from Maplewood, N.J., leader of the Students for a Democratic Society, a major dissenter group, was one of those getting a letter this week.

Coleman said students who admit participating in the demonstrations, during which five campus buildings were occupied until cleared by police, could be a year.

Coleman said that no final disciplinary action would be taken until pending criminal charges against students have been resolved.

According to Columbia records, 524 of its students were arrested on charges of criminal trespass or resisting arrest on April 30, when 1,000 city police cleared the five buildings held by protesters. Of those arrested, the university said, 239 were from Columbia College, the undergraduate liberal arts school. Of 121 persons arrested Saturday during a demonstration in a tenement just off the campus, police said, 56 of those were Columbia students.

Sugar Exports

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Brazilian sugar exports for 1967 surpassed 500,000 tons, worth over $60 million, according to the National Alcohol and Sugar Institute.

Potato Chip Vote Going

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A union vote starts today on an agreement for settling Northern California's five - week potato chip strike.

The mail balloting by about 300 driver - salesmen members of the Teamsters Union is expected to be completed before Friday.

The agreement, reached with aid from Federal Mediator Jerry Finley, provides a 3 - year contract with improvements in commissions, vacations, and pensions.

The strike was called April 22 against Granny Goose plants in Fresno, Sacramento, and Oakland; Laura Scudder's Tracy plant, the Bell plant in Hayward and the Frito-Lay plant in San Jose.

Actor Nabbed On Charges Of Marijuana

AGOURA (AP) — British actor Terence Stamp and his younger brother, Christopher, are free on $1,250 bail each after being arrested on charges of marijuana possession in this Los Angeles suburb.

Terence, 29, and Christopher, 25, will be arraigned Thursday in Malibu justice court. Harry Weiss, attorney for the blond actor, said his client "denied everything."

Sheriff's deputies R. J. Hickman and William Lewis said they became suspicious when they smelled the "strong odor of burning marijuana" while their car and an auto the Stamps were using stood side by side at a stop sign Saturday night.

They said Christopher Stamp dropped a lighted, half-smoked cigarette as he stepped from the car and that they found two marijuana cigarettes and a half-ounce vial of marijuana in the vehicle.

The deputies said the Stamps were wearing blue jeans and were driving a Paramount Pictures automobile. A Paramount spokesman said he had no knowledge of the Stamps using a studio car.

A spokesman said the actor has been in Los Angeles about a week to promote his latest film, "Blue." The actor gained stardom for his leading role in "Billy Budd" and has appeared in such films as "The Collector," "Far From the Madding Crowd," "Modesty Blaise" and "Term of Trial."

Teacher To Seek Post In Congress

MONTPELIER, Vt. (AP) — A history teacher at Braintree-Randolph Union High School says he will challenge U.S. Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., for Aiken's seat in Congress.

William K. Tufts of Bethel, former president of the Vermont Young Rpeublicans and the Young Americans for Freedom, told Republican state committee chairman Elbert G. Moulton he will seek the GOP nomination to the Senate in the September primary.

Reagan, Dixie GOPs In Secret Session

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Gov. Ronald Reagan spent more than three hours yesterday in a secret meeting with key Southern Republican leaders.

Afterward, Peter O'Donnell of Texas, chairman of the Southern Association of Republican State Chairmen, told newsmen last night that Reagan was asked to appear because "we're of the opinion that it is likely he will become a candidate" for the Republican presidential nomination.

"We were impressed with his candid manner," O'Donnell said of the governor, who began a swing through the South. But O'Donnell and other Republican chairman dodged questions about what was discussed.

Reagan was due in Washington today for a luncheon with several congressmen, including Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., and a news conference. He is expected to leave for Charlotte, N.C., and then on to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., tonight.

O'Donnell said Reagan and the chairmen discussed "issues, the national convention and the campaign."

In a speech at Tulane University, Reagan lashed out at the nation's welfare program, calling it a "colossal and almost complete failure." He criticized the antipoverty program for what he called its high administrative costs and overhead.

The first president to appear on television was Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Cannisters To Be Checked Out

Marin County merchants today were warned by a spokesman for the Marin Muscular Dystrophy Association not to accept collection cannisters currently being distributed.

"This distribution is not authorized and merchants who are approached about the cannisters should contact the Marin County sheriff's office," Nyal Worsham said.

Worsham said all police departments have been notified to watch for the persons making the unauthorized distribution. The association holds its annual fund campaign in the fall, not in the spring, he said.

Birth defects cost about 560,000 lives in the United States each year, says the March of Dimes.

Rockefeller Questioning Reagan's 'Real' Intentions

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket would have "great strength"—but that he feels right now California Gov. Ronald Reagan is after the top spot.

Rockefeller, announced Republican Presidential candidate, said yesterday he thinks Reagan's course will be influenced by the vote the Californian draws in the May 28 Oregon and June 4 California primaries.

Rockefeller planned to meet today with Southern GOP leaders in New Orleans where Reagan spoke yesterday. The two governors scheduled visits to Florida later in the day with Reagan making stops at Washington, D.C. and Charlotte, N.C.

The New Yorker's comments on Reagan were made on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

"He's getting increasingly active—a lot of TV work around the country," Rockefeller said, "and I think that he is pretty well set for the top spot."

Asked if he'd be happy with a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket, the New York governor replied he'd be happy to get the GOP nomination "and after that I'm open minded.

"If you get a ticket that reflects both points of view in the party," he said, "then it gives great strength."

Reagan, a California favorite-son candidate who has said he would accept the GOP nomination but is not soliciting it, is entered in both the Oregon and California primaries.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon was listed by the Gallup Poll meanwhile as the candidate with the highest public enthusiasm now although the poll showed less enthusiasm for any leading presidential candidate now than in the past 16 years.

The poll found Nixon listed "highly favorable" by 28 per cent of the people surveyed. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey followed with 26 per cent, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy with 24 per cent, Rockefeller with 23, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy with 19, third-party candidate George Wallace with 15 and Reagan with 11.

Wallace was listed "highly unfavorable" by 32 per cent of those surveyed, Kennedy 19 per cent, Reagan 15 per cent, Nixon 12 per cent, Humphrey 10 per cent, Rockefelled 8 per cent and McCarthy 4 per cent.

The poll found none of the current candidates doing as well at this stage of the campaign as did President Johnson in 1964, Nixon and John F. Kennedy in 1960, and Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson in 1956 and 1952.

In the Democratic presidential race, Kennedy issued a new broadside at Humphrey for "using a political forum to report" on sensitive negotiations with Asian Communist nations.

Humphrey had told the American Association of Editorial Cartoonists the crew of the captured intelligence ship Pueblo, and possibly the vessel, "may" be released by North Korea.

Humphrey also said the best way to get the ship and crew back would be to include the issue in current peace talks in Paris between U.S. and North Vietnamese representatives.

Troops Curb Racial Unrest; Curfew Off

SALISBURY, Md. (AP) — An all-night curfew was lifted on schedule at 7 a.m. today as a massive force of national guardsmen and state troopers guarded against Negro rioting in Salisbury.

Gov. Spiro T. Agnew moved about 800 Guardsmen into Salisbury yesterday. They joined more than 300 troopers dispatched Saturday night when violence was touched off by the fatal shooting of a Negro burglary suspect by a white policeman.

Downtown Salisbury appeared normal today as guardsmen stood on street corners with rifles slung over their shoulders. They carried ammunition clips.

Businesses and schools opened as usual. Traffic moved normally.

Damage caused by about 1,000 Negroes Saturday night was relatively light, but the governor moved swiftly to guard against a recurrence.

Fire broke out at two lumber yards yesterday and firemen fighting a brush fire on a vacant lot were stoned by a crowd of 100 Negroes.

Some of the national guard troops were on the streets by 8 p.m., although the last of the full contingent did not arrive until about midnight.

The governor ordered at 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew, then activated the 6,000-member guard "in such numbers as shall be required." About 200 guardsmen had been alerted Saturday and spent Saturday night in the Salisbury armoy without seeing duty.

Governor Agnew also proclaimed a state of emergency Saturday night which remained in effect for the weekend.

About one-third of Salisbury's 18,000 residents are Negroes.

Wreck Near Civic Center Injures Three

California Highway patrolmen reported that a northbound car driven by Daniel J. Machado, 18, of 309 North San Pedro Road, San Rafael, went off a curve on Civic Center Drive at 1:05 a.m. and skidded into the southbound lane. Machado's car hit head-on one driven by Kenneth A. Ross, 31, of 623 Gallerita Way, San Rafael, then overturned into a drainage ditch.

Machado was reported in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with multiple cuts. His passenger, Michael J. Hunn, 17, of 253 Devon Drive, San Rafael, was also in fair condition with a concussion and face cuts.

Mrs. Sandra Ross, 28, a passenger in her husband's car, was treated for cuts on her face and legs.

Arrest Leads To Hospital Drug Check

A San Francisco man jailed yesterday for investigation of car theft was later taken to Napa State Hospital after Marin County jailers said he started having drug withdrawal symptoms.

William Henry Thomas, 27, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sausalito police along with James Joseph Kohut, 31, of 2141 Center Road, Novato. Kohut was also jailed for investigation of car theft.

A Sausalito patrolman stopped the pair in a car at San Carlos and Santa Rosa avenues. A check showed the car had been stolen Friday from Avis Car Rental in San Francisco. The car had an Avis sticker partly scraped off the windshield.

Police said several syringes and hypodermic needles were found in the car glove box. He was also booked for investigation of possessing narcotics paraphernalia.

Bail was set at $1,465 for Kohut, who was to appear today in Marin Municipal Court. No bail has been set for Thomas.

San Franciscan Is Injured In Crash Of Auto

A passenger from San Francisco was hospitalized Saturday, following a single-car accident on the Petaluma-Point Reyes Road.

The driver, Carl S. Hutchison, 28, of Olema, was treated for face cuts at Marin General Hospital. Another passenger, James B. Moore, 24, had minor injuries and was taken home to the Don Brown Stables in Point Reyes.

Hutchison's car went off the road, a mile east of Shoreline Highway at 11:30 p.m., struck a power pole, then went across the road and rolled over, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Passenger In Crash Is Hurt

Mario L. Ortiz, 17, of San Francisco, was treated at Marin General Hospital for cuts on his left arm and left leg.

The accident occurred at 3:30 p.m., one-half mile north of Alpine Dam, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The car was driven by Steve H. Stearns, 17, of San Francisco,

The fund, made up of park entrance fees and other revenues, is earmarked for the purchase of parks and other recreation lands. Pending legislation would expand it to include continental shelf oil leases.

Rep. Harold T. Johnson, D-Calif., noting that the administration was planning major cutbacks in public works as part of the proposed $6 billion spending cut, suggested this would also hit park proposals such as the one before the committee. Udall conceded that parks were "not immune" to cutbacks, but that the redwood proposal was being given top priority because it was of "overriding national interest."

In a formal statement, Udall told the committee that California Gov. Ronald Reagan's administration now was agreeable to inclusion of state parks and probably would agree to cooperative management of the parks.

bills — primarily in the welfare field — which Reagan says he must have to balance the budget.

He has said he might have to veto millions from the budget, and possibly borrow money from special state funds, to balance the budget if he doesn't get the legislation.

The financial situation is complicated by these factors:

— A possible deficit of up to $152 million this year and next caused by a mistake in in drafting a new school aid bill last year. Reagan wants legislation to cut school spending back to the level of the old school allocation formula, $1.2 billion. Some legislators say they are inclined to let the schools continue to receive all or part of the so-called "windfall."

Success of Reagan's proposed plan to grant $155 million in local property tax relief through the county governments. If the money isn't allocated somehow within the next month or so, the state sales tax drops back by one-half cent on July 1, from five per cent to four and one-half per cent.

The effect of the sales tax cutback would be this: The state would lose a net $39 million in sales tax revenue that would have to be made up somehow to meet budget outgo.

The legislature's own fiscal specialist, A. Alan Post, has insisted for several months that the state's financial outlook isn't as gloomy as has been forecast all year by the Reagan administration.

doing?" asked Judge Lindsay.

"Yes sir, I do," Truax replied.

Truax, flanked by his attorney, Herman W. Mintz, was neatly attired in contrast with his rumpled suit and beard stubble in his first court appearance on being returned from Florida.

Truax will be remanded to Superior Court for sentencing, probably three weeks after a probation report.

Truax, assistant to the executive director of ABAG, vanished Feb. 8, the day auditors discovered discrepancies in his accounts. Warrane Schmid, his boss, said that checks for $399,649 and $61,793 from the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development were missing.

Truax, an honor student at San Jose State during his college days, had just returned from one of his frequent visits to Las Vegas when the reports of the auditors came out.

After his disappearance, his wife, Sherry, a school teacher, went home to Monrovia (Los Angeles County) where her father, John Saunders, is a municipal judge.

Car Theft Suspects Arrested

Two young San Francisco men, who, police say, stole a Volkswagen in San Francisco and another one in Greenbrae, were arrested in Fairfax early Sunday after they were spotted by a special officer.

Larkspur Patrolman J. Scott Waterman said the two drove over from San Francisco in the first stolen car, parked it, motor running, in the Bon Air Shopping Center, Greenbrae, and forced the ignition on a second Volkswagen, belonging to Robert Lewis Furtch of Windsor, Sonoma County.

Police identified the two men as Bruce E. Govern 23, booked on suspicion of car theft, driving without a license, refusing to properly identify himself, and three San Francisco traffic warrants, and Thomas R. Ellis, 18, booked on suspicion of car theft.

Special Officer John Robbins of the Fairfax Police Department said he spotted them in Furtch's Volkswagen at Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and Azalea Avenue a few minutes after a police broadcast was put out. Robbins radioed Sgt. Andrew Grimes and the two were arrested at Scenic and Sequoia Roads, Fairfax.

Appointments To Groups On Agenda

Appointments to the regional planning committee of the Association of Bay Area Governments and to the Bay Area Pollution Control board will be discussed by the Marin County Council of Mayors and Councilmen at a dinner at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the San Francisco Yacht Club in Belvedere.

R. Gene Geisler, associate professor of political science at San Francisco State College, will be guest speaker.

Vandals Do $460 In Damage To New School

Vandals did damage estimated at $460 to the new Sinaloa Junior High School on Wilson Avenue at Vineyard Road over the weekend, Novato police reported this morning.

Air compressors belonging to the W. G. Thompson Co. of San Francisco were dismantled by the vandals, costing approximately $150 to repair. Frank Joseph Sabbatini, foreman, reported to police.

Paint was thrown over the walls, ceilings and floor of the shower room doing damage estimated at $250, according to Jack L. Madigan, foreman for Superior Tile Co. of San Francisco, police reported.

Four bottles of hydrochloric acid, valued at $10 were thrown on the floors, doing damage estimated at $50, Fred Anthony Hannah, foreman for the E. C. Anderson Co. of San Francisco, reported to police.

$120 Is Stolen In Market Talk

Two men and a fast talking girl stole $120 from the 7-11 Market at 703 B Street, San Rafael, last night city police reported.

While the men distracted store manager Charles J. Peloquin, the girl shuffled nervously around the store, talking jive, police said.

When they all had left, Peloquin noticed that $120 of the days receipts were missing from the counter where he had been totaling the receipts.

Out Of Bed

PARIS (UPI) — Rev. Jen-Marie Boulogne, the Roman Catholic priest who underwent a heart transplant eight days ago, got out of bed today, ate a "substantial" meal and continued to make "satisfactory" progress.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Jeanne Baker Dies

Mrs. Jeanne Baker of San Francisco, former Marin County resident, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

A native of Chicago, Mrs. Baker moved to California 32 years ago. She lived in Ross and San Anselmo for 19 years until she moved to San Francisco three years ago.

She was self-employed in the property management field for the past three years with offices in San Rafael.

Mrs. Baker was active in the Marin County chapters of Hadassah and B'nai B'rith. She was a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club of San Francisco and a member of the Mount Zion Hospital Auxiliary.

She is survived by two sons, Edward Baker of San Diego and Donald Baker of Los Angeles; and two daughters, Beverly Ann Baker and Mrs. Gary Rifkind, both of San Rafael.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco. Interment will be at the Portals of Eternity Cemetery in Colma.

Holdup Felon Captured In San Rafael

Robert W. Lawrence, gunman in a Bermuda Palms holdup five years ago, probably wishes today that he had never heard of the City of San Rafael.

That city's police force arrested him for the 1962 Bermuda Palms robbery, just minutes after he and two other men fled with the cash.

A week ago Saturday, he got his first taste of freedom in years, walking away from the Black Mountain Prison Camp in Sonoma County.

On Saturday, he entered San Rafael's city limits for the first time since his armed robbery conviction, and was immediately arrested.

Lawrence, 40, was walking along Lucas Valley Road near Los Gamos Road, when San Rafael Patrolman Donald M. Rose pulled alongside in his patrol car.

Lawrence was taken to county jail, where, later that day, he was met by San Quentin guards, who took him to prison to resume serving his five years to life sentence for the Bermuda Palms robbery.

Picnic Slated By Marin's Fair Play Committee

The Marin Committee for Fair Play will hold a public picnic from 2 to 6 p.m. June 9 at the home of Roger Kent, 200 Woodland Road, Kent Woodlands.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, will be the guest speaker, and will discuss the status of the Rumford Housing Act and pending civil rights legislation.

Food and soft drinks will be served, and there will be volleyball, softball and other games for children.

Tickets are being sold by Charles Massen of Corte Madera, Dieter Schugt of San Rafael and Martin Rosen of Mill Valley.

Arrest Made On Drug Sales

A 20-year-old Kentfield man, Douglas Jennings Dressler, was arrested by sheriff's deputies Saturday on a charge that he sold two pounds of marijuana to an agent of the Marin County Drug Abuse Bureau May 2.

Dressler is the roommate of Ronald Thomas Faircloth, 24, who was arrested at their apartment at 818-A College Avenue, Kentfield, May 15 for allegedly selling $50 of marijuana to the same agent.

Faircloth faces a preliminary hearing June 3 on charges of selling marijuana and possessing a small quantity of the weed.

Dressler, released without bail and, was to appear in court today on the marijuana sale charge.

Firemen Talk

Boy, 11, Tries To Regain Knowledge

By MARY LEYDECKER

A Lucas Valley boy who was 11 yesterday is going through a sometimes joyful and sometimes painful process of relearning all the knowledge that was lost to him when he suffered brain damage about a year ago.

Brian Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cronin of 26 Zephyr Court, was a very normal, bright child who did exceptionally well in school. Then, he fell from a wagon which his brothers were pulling down a hill and suffered a concussion.

Serious convulsions followed this, and then a year of almost constant hospitalization in which Brian had six brain operations.

"In addition to the seizures which Brian suffered, I began to notice other changes in him," his mother said. "He adored to play chess before his accident and all of a sudden, he wouldn't play any more."

He also disdained all of his other favorite games, Mrs. Cronin said, because he realized he could no longer cope with them.

Six weeks ago Brian did not even remember the alphabet, although he is bright and alert to talk to.

For six weeks he has been receiving special help from a teacher who is trained to deal with retarded children and who has been coming to his house for an hour every day.

In this short period, Brian has progressed to where he can communicate his thoughts in writing, although as he wrote himself, "I dot spell to wall."

Brian's teacher, Norma Boyer, uses wooden block letters as one method of teaching him through senses other than his eyes. He picks up the letters and places them on a board to spell words.

Still bothered by double vision and occasional seizures, Brian is expected by his doctors to make complete recovery, his mother says.

In the meantime, she feels that the help he is getting from the home teacher will allow him before too long to join his classmates.

The program under which Brian can have this special help is threatened by passage of bill now pending in the state Senate, which would reduce funds for the educationally handicapped program throughout the state by 50 per cent.

This bill is aimed at effecting economy in the 1968-69 schools budget.

Brian's mother has written to Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, who has told her that he hopes an alternate bill, SB 95 will be passed which although cutting down funds, would still allow such programs to continue.

Mrs. Cronin has been told by school officials that if the first bill, which is SB 1206 passes, that funds for a home teacher for Brian would probably be eliminated.

Brian himself understands enough about the problem that he has written to Governor Ronald Reagan, saying "It is to hard for me in my on grad becoso the kids do woke moch to hard for my . . . so plees hepl me kip me speecel theather."

Brian was trying to write: 'It is too hard for me in my own grade because the kids do work much too hard for me . . . so please help me keep my special teacher."

Brian also does not belong in a class for mentally retarded, Mrs. Cronin said. He now spends a couple of hours a day in his own fifth grade class, where he enjoys the sociability even if he isn't ready to keep up with the school work yet.

If Brian's home teacher cannot be sent by the school district next year, Mrs. Cronin doesn't know what his fate will be.

Although she is busy with six other children, including a daughter at University of San Francisco, three boys and a two-year-old daughter who is mentally retarded, Mrs. Cronin is doing all she can these days to work for the passage of SB 95.

Mime Troupe Plays Softball At Center

The San Francisco Mime Troupe, which has been warring with Mill Valley city officials over its right to perform in city parks, turned in a great performance during the weekend of a troupe deciding not to push its luck.

A spokesman for the troupe said Friday that it would perform at the Community and Youth Center both days despite a court order upholding the city's denial of a permit to perfrom at the center.

Marin Superior Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson also held Thursday that the Mill Valley City Council had acted 'arbitrarily" on May 6 in denying the troupe a permit to perform in Old Mill Park. Jane Holden, a writer for the troupe, said the troupe did not "get justice," and promised it would "perform something" at the community Center anyway.

Fearing she meant what she said, the Mill Valley police put up a barricade saying "No Trucks" at the entrance to the center. The troupe generally performs on a flat bed trailer.

The troupe members showed up Saturday, as Miss Holden promised, and they performed something, as she promised—they played softball. Sunday, there was no sign of the troupe.

They are to perform again in Old Mill Park June 8 and 9.

Control Asked For Bay, Shore Development

The agency that succeeds the Bay Conservation and Development Commission should have power to regulate both bay and shoreline development, the commission recommended Friday.

Meeting in Oakland, the commission voted to incorporate this policy in the master plan, now under preparation for the Legislature. It is scheduled for September completion.

The BCDC will be phased out 60 days after the end of the 1969 legislative session. A new commission is to be created to replace it.

The commission also recommended that the future agency have power to issue permits for any bay filling or dredging that is done.

Picnic Facilities At Park Finished

Installation of picnic facilities at Pioneer Memorial Park on Simmons Lane in Novato has been completed and the park is now open for weekend picnic use, according to Edward W. Adams, Novato parks and recreation director.

Picnic tables, benches and barbecue pits were installed last Thursday by the Novato Civic Foundation in cooperation with the city public works department, Adams said.

Marincello Suit Nears Conclusion

Final arguments in the nonjury suit by the City of Sausalito to block the construction of Marincello which began in Marin Superior Court Friday, have been continued until 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The hearing is before Judge Harold J. Haley.

The city and co-plaintiffs John P. and Constance L. Erickson and Herbert and Frances M. Perkins, neighbors of Marincello, claim the planned development community would cause intolerable and unsafe traffic jams on Highway 101 and burden Sausalito schools and public services.

The suit asks that county rezoning for the planned community in Marin's headlands be nullified.

An auction of Thomas Frouge's contract for the development was scheduled for today, but has been postponed indefinitely, according to a spokesman for Frouge. The VTR Investment Corp. advertised in New York last month that Frouge's contract with the Gulf Oil Co. would be sold at auction to satisfy a debt.

The Frouge spokesman said negotiations, however, are still underway and attorneys for both sides agreed to postpone the auction. Frouge claimed VTR failed to perform on a contract to lend him $5 million for the project and threatened to seek a court injunction to prevent the auction.

Machinists Strike Due To End Soon

REDWOOD CITY (UPI) A seven-week strike which has idled more than 10,000 machinists in the San Francisco Bay Area should be settled by tomorrow, according to federal mediators.

They made the optimistic prediction yesterday after machinists at the Ampex Corp voted to accept a three-year contract calling for hourly wage increases of 83 cents an hour.

About 1,400 Ampex employees were expected to return to their jobs today.

Earlier, Federal Mediators Eugene Barry and Verne Hughes announced agreements were reached Saturday between the International Association of Machinists and the California Metal Trades Association, Schlage Lock Co. and Dalmo-Victory Corp. This covers more than 80 shops in San Francisco, Alameda, San Mateo and Contra Costa counties.

Talks between the Machinists Union and the Santa Clara County Metal Trades Association continued today while contract ratification votes were taken at the other shops. Terms of all the proposed contracts are similar.

New President Of Lions Named

Eugene Di Basilio of 16 Carson Road, Woodacre, has been elected president of the San Geronimo Valley Lions Club for 1968-69. He succeeds Jack Barnes Sr., also of Woodacre.

Also elected were Paul Burger, first vice president; Raymond Pfennig, second vice president; Dale Stephenson, third vice president; Marshall McCunniff, secretary; John Keilty, treasurer; Robert Peacock, lion tamer; Carl Umland, tail twister, and Joe Bianchi and Earl Frank, directors.

Officers will be installed at 7 p.m. June 7 at a dinner meeting at the San Geronimo Golf Club.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Antitrust Action Up

The government has stepped up its antitrust suits. Firms may not conspire to fix prices or destroy competition. If they do, those guilty of such conspiracy may be fined or given jail terms.

In private civil suits under the antitrust laws, a business can recover three times what it lost through the violation of the law. The "treble damages" is an expression of public policy to discourage businessmen from forming conspiracies to fix prices or destroy competition.

To win, the plaintiff must show exactly how the antitrust violations hurt his business. For example, the offenders may have caused him to over-pay for purchases, or they may have plotted to drive him out of business, or to impair his credit or his customer relations.

A businessman can sue for treble damages in this case even though the government does not prosecute its case. But, as a rule, civil suits follow a successful government prosecution. In fact, to safeguard the defendant's rights in the civil lawsuit, the judge has to make sure that the defendant is not unduly prejudiced in the court's eyes by having lost his government case.

Just because the defendant broke the antitrust lows does not mean he thereby harmed the plaintiff. The plaintiff must show that the defendant directly caused his particular damages.

Often the defendants and the government enter into a "consent" judgement or decree. For example, the defendant must lower prices, stop taking certain actions, or change certain business practices.

In a suit for treble damages, the courts usually call upon the plaintiff to prove his case on his own, which often takes much evidence. Antitrust trials often are long. They may cover years of business transactions. (Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.)

Poole Appointed To Reform Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—U.S. Atty. Cecil Poole of San Francisco has been named to the 15-man advisory committee of the National Commission on the Reform of Federal Criminal Laws.

Announcement of the appointment came Sunday from former Gov. Edmund G. Brown, chairman of the commission. Congress created it in 1966 to study and make recommendations on the federal system of criminal justice.

Canada's population is growing at the rate of about 3 per cent a year.

Petaluman Is Appointed As Reserve Leader

Capt. James J. Coolican of Petaluma has been named assistant inspector-instructor of the Marine Reserve unit in Marin County.

Coolican will assume his new duties with Company M, 3d Battalion, 23d Marines, Marin Corps Reserve in San Rafael July 1. He relieves Lt. Col. James T. Bowen of 3 San Marcos Court, Novato, who has held the post since February, 1965.

Commissioned a second lieutenant after graduating from St. Joseph's College in Philadelphia in 1960, Coolican served his first overseas tour in 1962 in Japan, the Phillipines and on Okinawa.

Last month he returned from Vietnam where he had served a one-year tour as advisor to the Army of the Republic of Vietnam. He also was advisor to the elite "Black Panther Company" during the Tet offensive on the City of Hue.

While in Vietnam, Coolican was awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Medal and the Purple Heart. He also received the Cross of Gallantry and Medal of Honor from the Vietnamese government.

Square Dance Group Meeting In Novato

A new square dance program, held every Thursday at 8 p.m., has opened at the Marinwood Community Center. The caller and instructor is Keith Gylfe of Novato.

The program was listed erroneously as a "folk dance" group in last Thursday's issue of this paper. It is a square dance, not a folk dance group.

Armstrong's Sister Killed

BOUTTE, L. (AP) — A sister of jazz trumpeter Louis Armstrong was struck and killed by a car yesterday as she was walking across U.S. 90 here, police reported.

State police identified the victim as Beatrice Celina Armstrong, 46, of New Orleans. Boutte is just west of New Orleans.

Armstrong was in New Orleans this weekend for a jazzfest commemorating the city's 250th anniversary but he had left for Toronto, Canada, before police could relay the message of his sister's death to him.

In addition to a president, Panama has two vice presidents.

Spock's Antidraft Aide In Jury Fuss

BOSTON (UPI)—The trial of Dr. Benjamin Spock and four co-defendants charged with conspiracy in aiding young men to evade the draft opened today with defense counsel challenging the list of prospective jurors.

Leonard Boudin, counsel for the famed pediatrician, questioned why only five of the 100 prospective jurors were women. Clerk Russell Peck of the U.S. District Court said the names were chosen earlier this month from a box filled with the names of 300 persons, as required by law.

On trial with the 65-year-old Spock were the Rev. William Sloane Coffin Jr., 43, chaplain of Yale Divinity School, Michael Ferber, 23, of Buffalo, N.Y., a Harvard graduate school student, Marcus Raskin, 33, of Washington, co-director of the Institute for Political Studies, and author Mitchell Goodman, 44, of Temple, Maine, and New York.

Emergency In Islands Lifted

BASSETERRE, St. Kitts (AP) — The year-old state of emergency has been lifted on the islands of St. Kitts and Nevis but remains in effect in Anguilla, secessionist third member of the British associated state.

Gov. Sir Fred Phillip said conditions on St. Kitts and Nevis had returned to normal, but he kept a ban on public marches for another month.

Phillip said there was "still a state of rebellion" on Anguilla which declared itself independent last year, charging that it was receiving unfair treatment from the government in Basseterre.

Kettenhofen Says Arrigoni 'Inventing' Freeway Issue

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, seeking re-election to a second term in the Second District, charged Saturday that his opponent, Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. is "making claims that don't stand up and inventing issues where none exist."

Arrigoni has been charging Kettenhofen with favoring a freeway through the Ross Valley, but Kettenhofen said his constant stand has been "no freeway through Ross Valley or Sleepy Hollow."

The two candidates will confront each other at 8 p.m. today in the Greenbrae School at a meeting sponsored by the Greenbrae Property Owners Association.

Kettenhofen, speaking at the Ross home of Tom Perry, pledged himself to an aggressive campaign to get regional, state and federal funds "to help pay for things that are not strictly of local value." As an example, he cited tourist access to Point Reyes National Seashore.

The other way "to hold the county tax line," said Kettenhofen, "is to float bond issues, with voter approval, rather than demand current taxes for future improvements. That way, those who will benefit from the improvements will be those who pay for them," said Kettenhofen.

Banker Role In Legislation Is Urged

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California Bankers Association was urged today to take a more active role in influencing financial legislation.

The call was issued by Andrew C. Gaither to 450 delegates attending the association's 77th convention. Gaither is president of the association and vice president and secretary of Pacific National Bank in San Francisco.

The need for more political activity stems from two factors, Gaither said.

The first, he said, is the heavy emphasis now being placed on legislation by savings and loan institutions, the banks' chief competitors. Gaither noted that "in both Sacramento and Washington, the S&L interests are doing an effective job for their industry..."

Gaither said the second factor resulted from the annual session schedule for the California legislature.

Apartments Get Planner Nod

The Novato Plan Review Committee has approved the plans for a four-unit apartment house for Perry Huffstautter to be located at 1136 Third Street, Novato.

It also approved at Friday's meeting the design of 117-unit apartments for Walter Kieckhefer on approximately nine acres on the south side of Ingacio Boulevard across from the Pacheco Plaza shopping center, according to Mrs. Juanita Gibson, secretary. The plans now go back to the planning commission.

It postponed action on a request by Loyal Davis for 52-unit apartments on approximately two and a half acres on the east side of Railroad Avenue south of Orange Avenue. This was postponed because the entire site has not been zoned multiple residential, Mrs. Gibson said.

Four More Girls Enter Western Weekend Contest

Four more girls have entered the contest for queen of Western Weekend celebration in Novato, according to Mrs. Lloyd Loftus, chaperone of the contest.

This brings to seven the number of entries so far, Mrs. Loftus said. Entries will close at noon Friday, she said. The girls will be judged at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the horsemen's area on Bugeia Lane, Mrs. Loftus said.

The new entries are: Patty Villa, Paula Leonelli, Pat Carson and Nancy Lehigh .

Miss Villa, 18, graduated last year from Novato High School and is now working as a dental assistant in Novato. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Villa of 491 Wilson Avenue.

Miss Leonelli, 18, is a senior at Novato High School. She is the daughter of Lt. Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Joseph P. Leonelli of 1253 Lynwood Drive.

Miss Carson, 15, is in the ninth grade at Hill Junior High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip T. Carson Jr. of 1850 Indian Valley Road.

Corte Madera's Session Changed

The Corte Madera Town Council meeting scheduled for tonight has been postponed to 7:30 p.m. May 27, at the town hall, because a quorum was not expected tonight, according to Town Clerk Betty S. Behel.

The council will hold a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the town hall to consider the budget for the fire and police departments.

At the May 27 meeting a request from Fred R. Sanford to rezone a lot at the intersection of Casa Buena Drive, Sanford Street and Meadowsweet Drive to permit a restaurant will be considered.

Tam Valley Homes Looted

Burglaries at two Tamalpais Valley homes have been reported to the Marin County Sheriff's office.

Sheila I. Dempster, 419 Marin Avenue, reported that sometime between 4:45 and 11:45 p.m. Friday her home was ransacked and $250 in coins taken.

Town Suggestions Before School Board

Recommendations made by the San Anselmo Town Meeting May 11 regarding schools will be discussed by the San Anselmo School District board at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the library of Red Hill School.

Surjit Singh, who was chairman of the town meeting, will tell about the recommendations, among which were the proposal that the district hire more minority race staff members and a recommendation that the district explore the use of school social workers.

Driver Cuts Lip In Auto Accident

Curtis A. Amundson, 19, of 1025 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte when his car struck a parked truck, a picket fence and a tree in the 100 block of Janes Street, Homestead Valley, at 3:30 Saturday, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Officers said that Amundson was westbound when his car struck a parked truck, owned by John F. O'Conner of 104 Janes Street and then went through a picket fence and into a tree at 100 Janes Street. Admundson was treated at Marin General Hospital and sent home.

Chico State Degrees Due 10 Marin Grads

Ten Marinites will receive bachelor's degrees or credentials in spring commencement exercises June 1 at Chico State College.

Rezone For Hospital Is Given Nod

Marin County Planning Commissioners this morning approved rezoning to allow a general hospital and convalescent home in Santa Venetia, just east of Rafael Convalescent Hospital an North San Pedro Road.

L. B. M. Investment Management Co., headed by A. Bernard Muth of Orinda, hopes to build a 99-bed general hospital and a 99-bed convalescent home on 14 acres of land on the south side of North San Pedro Road between east Meriam Drive and Granlee Road. The property, now zoned for one-family homes, was rezoned to agricultural, which allows hospitals by use permit.

"We hope to have the hospital and convalescent home up by the end of this year," said Muth. "It will probably be 1969 before they are ready for occupancy." The hospital-convalescent home buildings would be worth about $3 million, Muth estimated.

In another action, commissioners rejected a proposal to raise some of the fees charged to the public for the processing of applications for rezoning, land division and various permits.

Engineer Carlos E. Gonzalez and Carl Brown, representing the Associated Home Builders of Marin, objected to a raise in fees. So did Philip Lygren, representing the civil engineers of the Bay Area.

Marin County fees are much higher than other areas in the Bay Area and are "far out of line" compared with other counties, Brown declared.

On a motion by Walter F. Freitas, commissioners continued the proposed raise in fees to June 10 and asked the planning staff to consult with the county administrator's office and bring back recommendations on what the fees should be.

If the planning commission wants to set policy fees, "this is the time to do it," said County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker. Otherwise, he said, he would take the matter to the board of supervisors where a policy determination would be made.

Rev. Banks To Open Campaign On Friday

Rev. Samuel L. Banks Jr., a candidate for Marin County supervisor in the Third District, will launch a two-day campaign tour of southern Marin Friday and Saturday.

The "Sam-Go-Round" tour will start at 4 p.m. Friday at Hayden's Department Store in Marin City, and Banks will meet voters there until 6 p.m.

On Saturday, he will tour nine shopping centers, and his campaign workers will be at the centers to talk with voters and hand out campaign literature.

On Saturday, Banks will be at the Purity Stores in Mill Valley from 9:30 to 10 a.m., at the Top Hat Market in Mill Valley from 10:15 to 10:45, at the Safeway Market in Mill Valley from 11 to 11:30, at Shoreline Market in Tamalpais Valley from 11:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., at the Big G Market in Marinship from 12:30 to 1, at 7-11 Market in Sausalito from 1:15 to 1:45, at Golden Gate Market in Sausalito from 2 to 2:30, at Strawberry Town and Country Village Shopping Center from 3 to 4, and at the Boardwalk in Tiburon from 4:15 to 5 p.m.

Coffees for Banks will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cousins, 139 Currey Avenue, Sausalito; 8 p.m. Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Julian, 355 Pinehill Road, Tamalpais Valley, and 8 p.m. Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Carpentier, 1057 Erica Way, Tamalpais Valley.

Compensatory Plan On Tam's Agenda

A report on the compensatory education program at Tamalpais High School will be presented to Tamalpais High School District board members at 7 p.m. today in room 16 at the high school.

The board will move to the district office for its regular meeting at 8:30 p.m. At this time plans for the new San Geronimo high school will be discussed.

Two Trials Start; One Continued

Jury trials of Julio Sanchez Garcia, accused of lewd behavior with a 13-year-old girl, and Raymond Bruce (Sonny) Edwards, charged with sale of marijuana, were scheduled today for this week in Marin Superior Court.

A third trial, the case of Mrs. Garnet Brennan who filed suit to contest her mid-term dismissal as Nicascio school principal, originally was scheduled also for this week. It was continued today, however, until the week of June 24.

Reason was that Molly Minudri of San Francisco, attorney for Mrs. Brennan, has another case currently being heard in San Francisco. Mrs. Brennan, 58, was one of more than 2,000 who filed affidavits in support of mechanic Melkon Melkonian, convicted of marijuana possession.

Her action led to her ouster by the Nicasio board of trustees on Oct. 7, 1967, and she is seeking a court order that she be rehired.

Trial of Garcia, 31, is scheduled on the master calendar for 10 a.m. tomorrow before Judge Samuel W. Gardiner. Garcia, of 136 Park Street, San Rafael, is accused of the lewd behavior Aug. 29 in San Anselmo.

Trial of Edwards, 26, of San Rafael, is before Judge Thomas F. Keating at 10 a.m. Wednesday. He is accused of selling two pounds of marijuana to undercover agents in Novato Jan. 16.

Gifted Children Group Will Report

The curriculum committee of the Fairfax School District will report on a booklet the committee has developed for gifted children to the trustees at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow at the district office, 58 Park Road.

The trustees will also hear a report on the annual sixth grade primitive camp out at Devil's Gulch in Samuel P. Tayler State Park, according to Supt. H. Reginald Hammond.

MOUNTAIN PLAY

Nice Retreat Into Another World On Tam

By FRANK FARRARA

Parents and children gathered on a slope of Mount Tamalpais under a grey sky yesterday afternoon to retreat into the world of "Alice Through the Looking Glass."

It was the 51st annual Mountain Play and the prevailing mood was that of a large family picnic with light-hearted, low-key entertainment for relaxation and laughs.

There were about 2,500 persons on hand with picnic backets, binoculars, cameras and other trappings of a family outing.

From the moment Alice stepped through the looking glass "into the world on the other side," old and young alike appeared to enter the world of fantasy with her.

Outside the theater, there were political stickers on car windshields, transistor radios blaring the play-by-play account of the San Francisco Giants' baseball game, and a string of Sunday drivers zipping along Ridgecrest Drive.

Inside, father and son laughed at the antics of Humpty Dumpty, and at some episodes, the fathers laughed louder than the sons.

While Alice was being introduced to the Leg of Mutton, parents were dipping into their picnic baskets for another snack.

There was easy laughter when Tweedledum and Tweedledee, twins who battle over a broken rattle, bumped into each other with a resounding "honk."

After the first act there was a 30-minute intermission which revealed the informal mood of the audience. While many sauntered up to the refreshment stand, some read books, a couple played guitars, and children scampered over the hills.

When a slight drizzle started, many covered their heads with the gold-colored programs, presenting the appearance of a gold-capped army.

When Alice finally stepped back into her normal world, and the fantasy was over, the audience moved slowly out of the theater, seemingly reluctant that it too had to move back into the world of reality.

Sean Stephens as Alice captured the audience throughout and was given a fine ovation as she bounded across the banquet table after the finale.

All in all the cast was stellar, the mood right and the pace, except for the long intermission, sprightly.

The production of Lewis Carroll's play was adapted for the Mountain Theater by Dan Totheroh. There was an original musical score by Thompson Chesnut and choreography for the dancing group by Margo Jones.

The second and final performance of the play will be presented at the Mountain Theater at 2 p.m. next Sunday.

MOUNTAIN MOODS—An enthralled crowd gives undivided (except for the two young ladies on the rock) attention to the Mountain Play, presented yesterday at the Amphitheater on Mount Tamalpais, it will be repeated next Sunday.

Outside Help Is Questioned

SINGAPORE (AP) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi declared anew today that India opposes any "outside powers" trying to fill the vacuum left by the proposed withdrawal of British troops from the Far East.

"We've expressed our views many times that there should be no question of any outside powers coming in," Mrs. Gandhi told a news conference.

"It's a question of the states in the region strengthening themselves and their greatest strength lies in stable political governments and economic development."

Mrs.Gandhi said India has no desire to take over the role of British forces.

The prime minister is making a friendship tour of Singapore, Australia, New Zealand and Malaysia. She said India is prepared to work more closely with other countries through economic and technological cooperation.

Barbecue Reset

A public fund-raising barbecue chicken dinner scheduled today for Peter R. Arrigoni, a candidate for Marin County supervisor in the Second District, has been postponed to 4:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watkins, Acorn Way, Kentfield. Arrigoni has the flu.

Papal Statue Under Attack

WARSAW (AP) — The Polish Roman Catholic Church says a Communist statue of Pope John XXIII is an attempt to exploit his memory and "sow confusion and distrust inside the Catholic community."

A communique read in churches throughout the country yesterday said: "John's spirit of Christian commonwealth cannot be conciliated with treacherous action and sufferings imposed on the Church by the people who support the construction of the monument . . . and who do not permit the construction of necessary churches."

The statue is expected to be completed next month in Wroclaw, formerly German Breslau. When the cornerstone was laid two years ago, the Church boycotted the ceremony charging that the government's Office of Religious affairs had organized it without the knowledge of the church.

Donald O'Leary Plans To Open His Campaign

Donald J. O'Leary of Tiburon, a candidate for Marin County supervisor in the Third District will open his campaign headquarters at 10 a.m. tomorrow at 317 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley.

The office will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

Public coffees for O'Leary will be held at 8 p.m. Wesnesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Grimes, 70 Woodbine Drive, Mill Valley; 4 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hartsough, 1850 Mountain View Drive, Tiburon, 6:30 p.m. May 27 at the home of J. Donald McCune, 25 Spring Lane, Tiburon, and 8 p.m. May 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Briggin, 303 Vista Linda Drive, Mill Valley.

Chevelle SS 396 Sport Coupe

Chevelle puts the other mid-size cars in their place.

Second, Third, Fourth and so on.

There are all kinds of reasons why Chevelle is the most popular car in its field.

It gives you the mid-size field's greatest choice of engine-transmission combinations. That includes six V8's ranging up to a 350-hp Turbo-Jet available in the SS 396 above. It also gives you the kind of ride you'd expect only in the more expensive cars—with Full Coil suspension and a separate frame with advanced body mounting system. And Chevelle comes on with all sorts of credentials. For instance in the recent NASCAR-sanctioned Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, a Chevelle won the Sports Intermediate Class, scoring the highest number of total points in the braking, economy and acceleration tests.

So what else can Chevelle do for you? How about giving you the widest choice of personalizing features in its field? And something else that contributes to its popularity: prices that start a full $100 lower than competitive models.

On The Record, It Has To Be Kettenhofen

Voters of the Second Supervisorial District have a choice June 4 between two candidates who both have records of performance in public office on which to base judgment.

Since there are only two candidates, the primary is the election in the Second District: either incumbent Ernest N. Kettenhofen or challenger Peter Arrigoni Jr. must receive a majority of ballots, so there will be no November run-off for this office.

Kettenhofen, as supervisor for four years, has been subjected to more public scrutiny throughout the Second District than has Arrigoni, as Fairfax city councilman for the same period.

Reviewing their records, we find:

THE MAJOR PROJECT of widest effect in the Second District during the last four years was the Corte Madera Flood Control project. While many people are legitimately unhappy with the way the Army Corps of Engineers goes about such projects, this is one that a long series of worsening floods made obviously necessary.

Kettenhofen was the man, more than any other, who brought the project to fruition. It was he who persuaded city councils to participate. It was he who convinced the Fairfax City Council — with Arrigoni as a member — after it had once voted unanimously against participating in the district.

Another issue of major interest in the Second District is the extension of Highway 17. Kettenhofen braved the wrath of Sleepy Hollow residents at the height of the Highway 17 route dispute by urging a route which they felt would disrupt their community. But he saw the necessity for the road and sought diligently for the most acceptable route.

In fact, a route he proposed won unanimous backing of the Fairfax City Council (Arrigoni included) in December, 1966. Subsequently, however, the Fairfax Council fell back to a merely negative position of "no road through Fairfax," ignoring the problems of those beyond the city's borders.

These are but two cases in point. There are others, in which Kettenhofen's role quite consistently has been that of working hard for what he believed to be public improvements. Arrigoni's role on the Fairfax City Council has been, we feel, neither so forceful nor so consistent.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS must be judged also on how willing they are to conduct the public's business in the open. This is a matter that reaches the very heart of honest democratic government — although some people do not realize this is so until too late.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors in recent years has had a pretty good record in this regard, though not a perfect one. Kettenhofen must be faulted for one instance: when he joined in an attempt to hold a closed-door meeting to discuss how much public money should be spent on department heads' salaries.

But the record of the Fairfax City Council over the years has been miserable. It has ignored the intent of the law and the principles of democratic government repeatedly with private sessions on the public's business. Arrigoni took part in many such sessions during his four years in office, and the record was no better in the year he was mayor.

Ernest Kettenhofen and Peter Arrigoni are both fine men. The Second District is fortunate in having two candidates of their calibre.

ON THE RECORD, however, it is Kettenhofen who has proved the more able in the public service. The people of the Second Supervisorial District will do well to return him to office for another four years.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Many Things Mitigate Against Russ Blow At Czechoslovakia

WASHINGTON — George Kennan in his memoir gives a graphic and moving description of the rape of Czechoslovakia by the Nazis in 1939. Kennan was serving in the U.S. Embassy in Prague as this country stood by in helpless indecision.

After the elimination of Jan Masaryk, the last and symbolic remnant of a once-free and democratic people, almost certainly by assassination directed from the Kremlin, a long, dark night descended. The visitor to Prague had the impression that of all the Communist capitals this was the most subservient and sequestered. The past seemed to be dead and quite thoroughly buried.

All the more amazing, then, was to see that the fire of freedom and independence had not been extinguished despite the cruel rigors of the Stalinist era. In recent weeks it has burst forth in a dozen different directions showing how strongly the allegiance to the ideals of the West has been. But now, once again, the fate of this brave and tragic people seems to turn on a force quite beyond their control.

THE THREAT of Soviet military intervention is interpreted here as a scare tactic. The Czechs do not scare easily. They have been saying they knew that the military maneuvers in Poland were to be held and, therefore, they attach no significance to them. Moscow has kept notably silent on this point.

Perhaps the most ominous development confirmed by diplomatic sources is the movement of a Soviet division in East Germany to a position near the Czech border. That would serve two purposes — to intimidate the Czechs and to appease Walter Ulbricht, who lives in a constant state of fear lest the contagion of freedom spread to his domain.

The observer looking on from the outside finds it impossible to believe that the Soviet Union would intervene militarily to suppress the Czech upsurge. This would be a shock to world opinion greater even than the intervention in Hungary in 1956. In Budapest, freedom fighters were assaulting Soviet occupation troops, attacking Russian tanks with Molotov cocktails and their bare hands. They had announced that an independent Hungary would get out of the Warsaw pact.

Invasion of Czechoslovakia would outrage opinion in this country. Entirely apart from the Czech and Slovak societies that keep memories of the homeland alive there would be a violent revulsion of feeling. It would owe something to the sense of guilt still prevailing over America's paralysis at the time of the first tragedy.

ALL THE SMALL steps taken recently to ease tensions between Moscow and Washington would go by the board. An early casualty would be the nuclear nonproliferation treaty which has high priority on Moscow's list. The powers reluctant to sign would find Czech intervention the best possible excuse to repudiate the treaty which must get a majority in the United Nations Assembly. If one of the two super powers that promoted the treaty is capable of such total brutality, reluctant recruits like Brazil and India would have a perfect out.

The test for Prague, according to expert assessment here, is whether Alexander Dubcek, the new leader cast up on the wave of free expression, can hold the line. He must restrain those at the edge pushing for more and more freedom. Two boundary markers appear to set the limits for Dubcek. First, the Russian military could never permit withdrawal from the Warsaw pact, since Czechoslovakia is the western perimeter of Soviet defense. And, second, since Moscow puts such supreme importance on ideology, a multiparty system with real competition for the Communist party would be intolerable.

Moscow can turn the economic screws, since Czechoslovakia is dependent for most of its imports of oil, wheat and iron ore on the Soviet Union and other Communist states.

As in 1939, there is little the United States can do.

Faculty, Student Positions Defended

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have been watching with interest certain letters to the editor . . . during the last few weeks by citizens of the county who either imply or directly assert that the College of Marin is embroiled in "massive campus dissension" that has been instigated by a "very small number" of faculty members and students who "don't know their place" in the institution and who spend an inordinate amount of time in "activist" movements because they basically "resent authority." It is very important that citizens not normally connected with this college come to the campus and watch the conduct of the citizens in residence (students and educators) as we conduct our analysis of the operations of this institution.

Our activities — the meetings of the general college faculty, the Academic Senate and the student council — are open and public. These sessions take place outside of the instructional periods. Classes, committee meetings and other aspects of the College organization continue to convene. You will note that there has been no withdrawal of professional services or a walkout by the students. We are not, at this time, going to allow the behavior of one person — the college president — to upset teaching, learning and problem-solving activities in the classroom, laboratory and faculty office. . . .

The faculty Academic Senate as an established entity of the college organizational system, works actively to formulate some district policies (in most cases the Senate entertains only those agenda items which pertain to academic and professional issues) but it does not establish district policy. We can, and will, question certain district policies is open and publich discussion. This is not a resentment of authority issue. . . .

Women's Role In Planning Start

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have read with much interest your series of articles on the history of "Planning in Marin." As you say, Hugh Pomeroy's survey report of 1935 . . . has been a guide for public acquisition of parks and beaches in this county.

I wonder, however, how anyone can write about the beginnings of planning in Marin without mentioning the part played by Mrs. Norman Livermore, Mrs. Albert Evers, and the Marin Conservation League in initiating and supporting the Pomeroy report and the beginnings of the planning department in this county. Can it be that you are unaware that it was this citizen group that sparked the movement? If you will consult your files you will find an article in the Independent-Journal of March 7, 1964, "The Conservation Story — It All Started with Four Women," by Dorothy Gardner, which gives a somewhat different, and I believe correct, account of the way the Pomeroy report came to be made.

Sparked by the vision and enthusiasm of Mrs. Livermore, Mrs. Evers, Mrs. John Forbes, and Mrs. Helen Van Pelt, a group of citizens met in 1934 at Mrs. Livermore's house and formed the Citizens Survey Committee, a non-profit organization which became known about a year later as the Marin Conservation League. The sum of $2500 collected by this committee and presented to the board of supervisors was used to hire Hugh Pomeroy to make the survey and report which served, as you point out in your article, as the starting point and guideline for planning in Marin.

In simple justice to the memory of Caroline Livermore, whose vision and lifelong devotion to conservation have meant so much to marin, let us not fail to remember her part, and that of the Marin Conservation League she helped to found, in the beginnings and continued support of planning in Marin.

What Difference What It's Called

Editor, Independent-Journal:

What is all this knit picking about whether to call the faculty representatives "academic senate" or "representative assembly"? Your editorial reads like a back-handed attack at the qualifications and validity of the academic senate.

I speak from authority because I am an adult student who has been in Mr. (Samuel) Schwartz's class for two semester's. . . . As to your statement that 20 members of the senate live out of the county (Mr. Schwartz lives in Berkeley) I can not imagine what difference their address makes to their teaching ability. . . .

Mrs. WILMA NEUHAUS

Fellow Teacher Feels Sympathy

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am sure that many of us I-J readers have been caught up personally in the plight of an over-weight physical education teacher. Some consider her visible appearance as a "living lie," contradicting all that she is empoyed to teach.

I, too, am a teacher, and I must admit that, with respect to appearances relating to much that I teach, I also am a living lie. I teach truth to be a virtue, and yet I find myself deceiving not only other people, but myself as well. I teach love as the greatest good in human relations, but just dig into my attitudes a bit and you will find that I hate some people — some of the nicest people. I teach the American ideals of political and social democracy, of "liberty and justice for all," and so I would rather not expose too much of how autocratic, paternalistic, and arbitrary I can be, especially when I carry the bigger stick and need run few risks. I teach equal opportunity for the disadvantaged, but I put more into house and yard "improvement" than into the ghetto.

Even so I suppose that I am relatively secure, being five feet nine and 153 pounds, fairly punctual for classes, unbooked by the police (to date), etc. Of greater moment to me, however, are my competence and interest in what I teach and my relationships with those whom I teach and from whom I learn. When at their best these relationships involve mutual confession that we are far from being up to what we teach and learn. They demand mutual repentance and forgiveness for our human frailty and perversity; they require mutual support and strengthening toward daily renewal of worthy intent and appropriate action. But, in the final analysis, we also know that there are days when the only one working at such relationships is God Almighty.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Campus Nudes Irk Legislators; What Of Draft-Dodging Advice?

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Some of California's senators are deeply concerned over the showing of a group of pornographic statues at Long Beach State College by a so-called artist who is studying for a master's degree in art.

The senators agreed in a session behind closed doors, however, that they would give Chancellor Glenn Dumke, as he requested, a final chance to prevent exhibits of obscene art at state colleges.

Some pictures exhibited at Fresno State College on the prurient side also came in for criticism.

Under threat of a senatorial committee to keep a close eye on campus showings, the senators gave Dumke until September to clean up the situation.

IF THE SENATORS are concerned over the obscene statues and pictures, they may be even more wrought up when they discover an El Gaucho special report on immigration to Canada as a way to beat the draft.

"PLEASE BE ASSURED that I never will appear for induction. I can clearly see what purposes would be served by my services in the armed forces or indeed even by further co-operation with the Selective Service system. These purposes are alien to my personal beliefs."

Inside is a story on "Running Away to Canada, the Steps to Take," which says that in gradually growing numbers, "angry, disillusioned young Americans are severing their stakes in the American Dream and going to Canada to resist the draft."

The story points out that "Canada is not any easy way out; it is only chosen, hopefully, from the attitude that the draft is so thoroughly rotten that the only way to protest against the system is to leave it entirely."

Then the student publication proceeds to a long list of "anti-draft contacts for help in Canada." The publication lists 26 such contacts, including committees to aid American war resisters, war objectors, draft resisters, teach-in committees against war, and others.

In all fairness, the special report does point out there are some disadvantages in going to Canada, as the "citizenry is, for the most part, more conservative and colonial in their attitudes than Americans." And "if you think your long, curly locks bring strange glances in California, wait until you take a walk in Victoria or Vancouver."

LATEST DeGaulle joke pictures the irascible general sopping up a little culture at an art gallery with his minister of cultural affairs, Andre Malraux. "Aha," nods DeGaulle, "This one's a Matisse." "No, sir, that's a Monet." "This one must be a Cezanne." "Wrong again, mon General. I's a Utrillo." Desperate, DeGaulle cries, "You can't fool me this time. Here's a Picasso." "No, no, mon General," says Malraux sadly. "This time it's a mirror."

To give you a graphic example of how radically things have changed in forty years, when Herbert Hoover was inaugurated as president in 1923, he waited some days to summon his secretary of war, then asked him, "Do you know of anything particular going on in your sphere about which I should be concerned?" "Not a thing in the world, Mr. President," was the response. Hoover never had occasion to huddle with the war secretary one other time for the balance of his administration!

Bombing Cutback Helps Ho Move Troops To South

By PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — While U.S. negotiators are holding out hopes that preliminary talks in Paris will evolve into something more, the realities in Vietnam offer little encouragement for this optimism.

Since the partial bombing halt was ordered on April 1 by President Johnson, the North Vietnamese have succeeded in reducing by two-thirds the time it takes to send military supplies and reinforcements into South Vietnam from their main staging area in the north.

"U.S. Army units are now taking North Vietnamese prisoners who say it takes only 11 days now to travel by truck from the Hanoi-Haiphong area to Saigon," the latest U.S. intelligence estimate on enemy infiltration states.

"In the Ashan Valley, American units have captured North Vietnamese regulars who have been in the South only four days," the military report points out. "These enemy soldiers reveal that they were able to ride all the way from staging areas north of Hanoi without being bombed." This compares with from 30 to 45 days previously needed.

THE SOUTHBOUND traffic from North Vietnam also has reached unprecedented proportions. Infiltration into South Vietnam is currently four times the 6,000-man-a-month average of late 1967. It is estimated 150,000 have gone into South Vietnam or nearby sanctuaries in Cambodia and Laos since Jan. 1.

This logistic speed-up, due in part to the bombing reduction, means that Hanoi now has the capability of launching major attacks against Saigon at least once every six weeks, according to U.S. military command in South Vietnam.

American military officers in Saigon, confused and literally burned up by what they term the "phased cutback" of bombing raids over North Vietnam, are adjusting their tactical operations to meet a complete halt in U.S. bombing of the north.

These tactical operations include not only the aerial attacks up to the 19th parallel but also the U.S. Navy's ship-to-shore bombardments which also will be halted soon.

IN OPPOSITION to any further cutback in bombing, U.S. military officials in South Vietnam have sent an appeal to the joint chiefs of staff for authority to begin hitting airfields above the 19th parallel.

The joint chiefs of staff have recommended that these airfields be hit. No final decision is expected until President Johnson determines whether Hanoi is prepared to enter full-scale peace talks.

VIETNAM HEADLINES — North Vietnam is using President Ho Chi Minh's birthday as a spurt to greater production. He was 78 yesterday. Hanoi's propaganda machine urged workers to greater effort as part of an "emulation drive" in honor of the occasion. . . . Communist China is maintaining its daily propaganda support for what it terms the "Negro revolution" in the U.S. The campaign began with a rare personal statement by Chairman Mao Tse-Tung on the shooting of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. last month.

Is Worker Held Back Because Of Race, Or His Performance?

A frequent complaint is that members of minority races have a tough time finding jobs and a tougher time hanging on to the jobs.

This is undoubtedly true. County officials are trying to determine why it is that out of 100 youths who are hired, some 90 fail to stay on the jobs.

Is it because employers are determined to put them in the corner at the bottom of the heap and keeps them there, with no chance of advancement and no hope for the future?

Or is it because the newly employed worker does not perform up to snuff and expects advancement before he has proved himself? Or is it a combination of both?

WE LOOK AT it this way. In private enterprise, the employer must get performance in order to survive. If a worker feels $1.50 per hour as a starting wage is below his dignity, it is his privilege to look elsewhere. But once on a job, it's the worker's responsibility to make an honest effort to perform.

The standards for "honest effort" may change with the times, but to begin with, minimum performance would be to show up on time, every day, and put in the full hours. We'd say that's fundamental. Beyond that, the individual's skill and eagerness to do the assigned work come into play.

ON A FARM in Fresno, you work after school and weekends in the vineyards and orchards to help finance your junior college education. While you're picking grapes or picking strawberries in 110-degree heat, it would be folly to wave a diploma at the foreman. He probably couldn't read it anyway. Besides, your value to the foreman lies, not in your diplomas but in the strength of your back.

The moment you fail to show up for work on time, with no valid excuse, or even with a good excuse, you're out of a job. They have plenty of braceros to take your place.

So you graduate from college and get your degrees. Now you think you've got the world by the tail. So you storm into the newspaper office, flashing a couple of degrees. In your own estimation, you should be at least a senior reporter or some sub-editor, but actually you find yourself at the bottom of the totem pole.

ON A JOB like a daily paper, today's work will not wait for tomorrow. The importance of showing up for work each day at 8 sinks in. If your kid sister has a toothache, you can't afford to take time off to take her to the dentist. If you feel lousy from a hangover, you don't sleep to 9 a.m.; you learn to postpone your hangovers to the weekend.

After 16 years of showing up for work every day at 8, with a day off for the funeral of a close relative and three days off for illness, you might still find yourself nowhere near the editor's chair. You still account to your employers and your immediate supervisors.

If this is going to discourage you, then almost every employee in the private enterprise system must be discouraged.

Where is the incentive to keep a worker going? Often, the only incentive is the satisfaction of doing the assigned work in the best way you know how, and bringing satisfaction to fellow men in the process.

Back in the vineyards, it was picking more trays or boxes of grapes per day than the next guy. Besides, at three cents a tray, the more you picked, the more you made for college education.

THE SAME APPLIES in urban areas. Some friends that I know left the farms to take a different route.

With the money earned from picking grapes, they bought an old pickup, a few garden tools, and moved into the suburbs to mow lawns and water gardens. At first, they didn't know the difference between a camellia and a rhododendron and got paid accordingly.

But they put in long hours, after dark and on Sundays, for long years, until they built up a clientele of several hundred homes.

Today, they are successful landscapers. Some of them still work right alongside the men they employ.

THESE ARE MY standards for honest efforts at performance. If, after these efforts, the worker cannot earn a living wage, then something is seriously wrong with society, and he has a legitimate grievance.

By the same token, until we have exerted at least the minimum effort (getting to work on time, putting in full hours, not necessarily for 16 years straight, but at least for a year or two), we cannot accuse private enterprise of dumping us in a corner and leaving us at the bottom to rot.

Two Drivers Draw Sentences

Two men were sentenced in Marin Municipal Court Friday for drunken driving.

Francis Fell MacGowan, 61, of San Francisco, was arrested by Larkspur police on Ward Street on March 30. He was fined $100 and placed on a year's probation.

John Muzidal, 20, of 20 Allyn Street, San Anselmo, was given a suspended 15-day county jail term, fined $150, and placed on 18 months probation. California Highway Patrol arrested him March 9 on Highway 101.

How To Play Percentage Game So You Can Win While Losing

WASHINGTON — There is a tendency this year for all presidential candidates to poormouth the results of a primary. In the old days a candidate would brag that he was going to sweep a state and there was no doubt that his victory was in the bag.

But with the pollsters and statisticians examining every primary result in minute detail, the candidates are all crying that they'll be lucky to still be listed in a Harris Survey.

Over at Kennedy headquarters, a manager told me, when I asked him how Kennedy whould do in South Dakota, "We'll be very satisfied with 2 per cent of the vote. After all, we got in late. Bobby really hasn't had a chance to campaign and, besides, his name is still unknown in the state."

"HOW DO YOU THINK McCarthy will do in South Dakota?"

"He'll probably get 70 per cent of the vote. It would obviously be a big defeat for him if he didn't."

"And what about Hubert Humphrey?"

"Hubert has to do very well in South Dakota. If he gets less than 25 per cent, he'll have to bow out."

McCarthy's people were furious when I told them Kennedy's managers said if Gene got less than 70 per cent of the vote he'd be in trouble. "We don't expect more than 3 per cent. After all, we haven't any money and, besides, Hubert Humphrey is taking a lot of votes away from us. We should have an overwhelming defeat in South Dakota. But if Bobby gets less than 80 per cent he can kiss California goodby."

At Humphrey headquarters, they were also pleading disaster. "Hubert got in too late for the primaries. If he gets a vote of any kind, we'll be surprised."

"THE KENNEDY people told me Hubert has to get at least 25 per cent of the votes."

"Twenty-five per cent! They're out of their minds! They're just trying to make us look bad if we don't. Remember in Indiana when Bobby only got 42 per cent of the vote and he was supposed to get 50 per cent? Well, that was worse than Branigin getting 33 per cent, because Branigan only expected 30 per cent.

"It seems to me," I said, "that all the Democratic candidates are predicting very low figures for themselves so if they go over those figures they'll look good, and they're predicting high figures for their opponents so if they go below them, the opposition will look bad."

"I won't comment on that, but if Humphrey gets one-half of one per cent of the Swedish vote in South Dakota with the little campaigning he's done, then we'll be very much encouraged."

I THOUGHT at Nixon's headquarters they would at least be optimistic, since he is not running against anyone, but I found nothing but despair.

"Vice President Nixon without opposition will be lucky to win the Republican nomination."

"How do you explain that?"

"Why would anyone vote in a primary when there is only one candidate running? If Nixon gets 85 votes in South Dakota, we'd be surprised."

"But he's got to do better than that, particularly with Rockefeller creeping up on him in the polls."

"Our people feel that if Rockefeller doesn't get at least 349,000 write-in votes, we can consider his effort in the West a defeat."

"But if Nixon is on the ballot and you say he'll be lucky to get 85 votes, how can Rocky get 349,000 write-in votes, when you can't write in a name in South Dakota?"

"That's his problem."

On the basis of the tour, I decided to be very suspicious of what each of the candidates was predicting for himself as victories. To hear them tell it, they're lucky to be in the race at all.

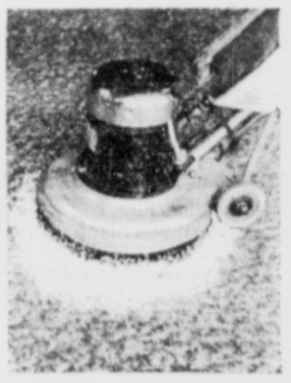
A BETTER WAY TO CLEAN CARPETS

Deep Steam Wall-to-Wall Carpet Cleaning

This unique new process cleans deep and yet treats the finest carpet with loving care . . .

DEEP STEAM removes soil from both the pile of the carpet and the carpet backing. Since no brushes or scrubbing action is used, there is no distortion of the carpet pile. The powerful extraction action of the DEEP STEAM process lifts matted pile to "like new" appearance. The need for frequent professional cleaning is reduced because deeply embedded soil is removed and leaves no residue in the carpet fibers to collect dirt. During this cleaning operation every fiber is coated with a SOIL RETARDANT to keep your carpet clean longer.

The old equipment with brushes, using liquid detergent or powder, scrubs the soil DEEPER into the fabric . . . and even with the help of a vacuum fails to remove soil or residue. The detergent or powder left in the fabric soon attracts more soil and it is not long before the soil works back to the surface. Soon your carpets appear more soiled than before!



The advantages of DEEP STEAM CLEANING are obvious!

THIS DEEP STEAM PROCESS IS GUARANTEED TO BE COMPLETELY SAFE ON ALL FABRICS UNDER ALL CONDITIONS!

Large carpet and carpet fiber manufacturers and trade associations that have witnessed or conducted tests on "DEEP STEAM" say this:

". . . does remove a very high percentage of the loose soil compared to present practices."

"This machine does a very effective cleaning on heavily soiled carpet with a minimum of texture change."

"It does an excellent job that is far superior than anything that could previously be done by conventional on-location cleaning methods."

". . . witnessed a demonstration in the Institute's offices where they cleaned some wool carpet . . . It was extremely soiled to the point where regular on-location cleaning would not touch it. With this process, it came out beautifully."

"We would certainly go on record as recommending . . . Deep Steam . . . as a recommended method for the cleaning of carpeting."

Bridge Jumper Is Identified

A 21-year-old man who jumped to his death from the Golden Gate Bridge Friday night has been identified as Robert Mark Bachman of no known permanent address, Asst. Coroner Eugene R. Fontaine reported yesterday.

He jumped from the bridge at 8:35 p.m. Friday and his body was recovered at 4 p.m. yesterday, Fontaine said.

Identification was made through state records which showed that Bachman had been arrested for a narcotics violation in Los Angeles, Fontaine said.

The search for Bachman's body started after Keven Carroll, 17, of San Francisco told the California Highway Patrol Friday night he saw a man climb over the bridge rail near the north tower and jump.

A Retired Nurse Helps Handicapped

Mrs. Sara Mullaly, 82, of Terra Linda is a retired nurse, but retirement fails to dampen her spirit for helping others, especially the handicapped.

Every Saturday, she hitches a ride from her home at 229 Arias Street to the Marinwood Community Center, where she is a volunteer in Marin County's recreation program for the handicapped.

She has been nominated for the outstanding senior citizen award for 1968 by the Terra Linda Senior Citizens Club, the Marinwood Community Services District, and the Marinwood Park and Recreation District.

Marinwood Recreation Director William A. Gordon described her as "a wonderful person, a good sport, and full of the devil."

SARA MULLALY
Senior civic leader

"They're doing things for the community all year round," said Gordon.

What is the secret of her energy and longevity? "Just keep active," Mrs. Mullaly confided. "Don't let your mind stagnate. People shouldn't sit down in a rocking chair and feel sorry for themselves. Do things for others. If you go to a hospital and see those people suffering, you soon forget your own pains and aches."

"What are you asking me all these questions for?" she wanted to know. "I wish the whole thing were over with. I don't like publicity, so make it as short as you can."

Born on Jan. 2, 1886 in Sweden, she came to San Francisco at age 15. Nursing became her career. She served at San Francisco Children's Hospital for 14 years and then worked in nursing homes until her retirement five years ago, when she moved to Terra Linda to live with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Throlin.

Her husband, James Mullaly, who was in the construction field, died 10 years ago.

She is a member of the Terra Linda senior citizens, Marinwood Funsters and Friends, and the Easter Seal Society.

She launched the "jumbo bids for the handicapped" program, and the Christmas gift project, which provided gifts to Sonoma State Hospital and to two Marin families. She also spearheaded the Easter Seal fashion show given for the handicapped at Marindale School in Terra Linda.

The Marinwood services district and the park and recreation district nominated both Mrs. Mullaly and Mrs. Boissevain for the outstanding senior citizen award because both are equally active, said recreation director Gordon. Mrs. Boissevain, who declined the honor for the third time, is a 50-year resident of Marin. She is especially interested in 4-H activities.

How The Children Beat Time To Beethoven

By MAYBELLE SPECKMAN

Three to seven-year-olds in the music appreciation classes Mrs. Forest M. Sorensen conducts in her Greenbrae home do not march and clap to such simple ditties as "Three Blind Mice."

No, indeed, they beat time to the first and third movements of Beethoven's C minor concerto, do exercizes on the floor to Mozart string quartets and march to the third movement of Rachmaninoff's second piano concerto.

THE SECRET to holding their attention says vivacious blonde Trudi, is in keeping the tots busy and using lots of pictures whenever possible. In fact, she wishes she were an artist so that she could illustrate everything she talks about.

It all started when the attractive housewife and accomplished musician decided that she wanted her three children — Eric, 7, Kenneth, 5, and Gail, 3, to have great music as part of their lives as soon as possible.

"I started with my children," she says, "and soon I was including neighborhood children. When I discovered three and five-year-olds can't do all of the same things, I divided them into a class of three and four-year-olds and another of five and six-year-olds"

Before long she had worked out a curriculum and had a house full of teaching aids, many her own inventions constructed by her husband.

SINCE 1966 she has had the two classes running September to June on Wednesdays with the younger children coming in the morning for 40 minutes and the older ones in the afternoon for an hour. Her last groups consisted of six girls and two boys in the younger class and five boys and three girls in the older one. Parents are happy to pay her small charges.

She teaches recognition of themes by having the children, who are holding sticks, march to music she plays on the piano. Every time the theme changes they change the position of the sticks. Simple rhythm patterns are counted by having them run the sticks around a wooden triangle for three beats and around a square for four beats.

A favorite with the children is listening as they stand around the piano to stories she makes up to such compositions as Schumann's "Scenes from Childhood" or Bach minuets. She also relates what is happening in the music when she plays records of music like Stravinsky's "Firebird" and "Petrouchka," Bizet's "Carmen" and Strauss's "Till Eulenspiegels."

OR, IN order to be really close to the younger children as they sit in a circle on the floor, she sits in the center playing her viola to illustrate other little sotries she invents. A dog bow wows to the opening notes of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony and fish swim to the rhythms of Debussy's "Gold Fish."

Learning to find middle C on the piano and become familiar with black and white keys is simple when the kiddies sit around a table, two each at a miniature keyboard.

A little rhythm band composed of everything from a minaiture xylophone to bongo drums, bells and sandpaper sheets is good for developing rhythm sense and alertness necessary to have each instrument play at the right time.

THERE IS some of the usual writing of cleffs and notes on staffs and games such as musical bingo and those performed to directions on educational records.

Sometimes the youngsters just sit quietly as they listen to music and draw crayon pictures suggested by music like Debussy's "La Mer," Respighi's "Pines of Rome," Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition" or Rossini's "William Tell" overture. Or they may make workbooks on a certain composer by cutting out pictures from magazines and pasting them in the books.

An unusual idea is having the children learn about orchestras by having them put standup cut-outs of the musicians and their instruments in the places they would occupy in a real orchestra.

Sometimes a whole class period is spent on one composer, such as the recent one on Mendelssohn when all the little girls, escorted by the boys, marched to the famous wedding march wearing scraps of sheets as bridal veils. The girls love this, Trudi says, but the boys aren't so enthusiastic.

OCCASIONALLY THE youngsters hear real concerts when musicians give special programs for them. Among these have been a bag piper, a cellist, a violist, a violinist, a flutist and a singer who illustrated the story of Jenny Lind.

Field trips are especially popular. The children went to a private home to examine and hear an organ with jazz equipment, to a church, where they were allowed to play a few notes on the big organ, and to a two-piano program. For this

ON THE AGENDA

Nursery School To Observe 20th Anniversary With Open House

San Anselmo Co-operative Nursery School will hold open house on Wednesday from 10 a.m. to noon. The school is located at 24 Myrtle Lane, San Anselmo.

Parents interested in learning more about this unusual method of pre-school education are invited to attend with their children. Directors Elizabeth Rall and Anne Falkenberg will be on hand to give information and answer questions. Visiting children will be free to use the playground equipment and to experiment with the educational toys and creative materials displayed.

The school this year celebrates its 20th anniversary, and two of the schools founding members, Mrs. John Rockwell of San Anselmo and Mrs. Ranald Cockburn of Fairfax, plan to attend.

Both women have maintained an interest in the school from its infancy when housing was temporary and often inadequate and fund raising a dire necessity to its present status as a financially stable, well equipped educational facility sponsored by the College of Marin.

THE PROGRAM for Wednesday's meeting of the Mount Carmel Women's Club at 8 p.m. in the lower hall of the Mount Carmel School will be a showing in slides of highlights of Mrs. H. E. Morgan's trip to Israel in March.

Mrs. Morgan, a club member, points out that Israel now includes the Holy Land, the Sinai Peninsula and the Golon Heights. She has pictures of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Haifa, which was established in 84 A.D. This is the church from which the Mill Valley parish took its name.

SWIMMING, BRIDGE and conversation are planned by the Family Service League members for their seventh annual play day. The event will again be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Dermott, 20 Oak View Drive, San Rafael, Wednesday from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

A year end report will be given by the Family Service League president Mrs. Ken Coburn. At this time, the Family Service League Shop managers, Mrs. Lloyd Bergstrom and Mrs. William Gannon, will present Mrs. Coburn with a $12,000 check. This money represents proceeds from the sale of Christmas cards, the Family Service League Shop and the Gift Gallery.

Mrs. David Mowbray and Mrs. Blaine Boyden are co-chairmen assisted by Mesdames Richard Forbes, Robert Lees, Raye Murray, R. B. Tillotson, L. R. Patterson, Samuel Swedenborg, James Langton and Miss Janet Sawyer.

FAREWELL NIGHT for retiring honored queen Joan De Lasaux of Mill Valley Bethel 119, Job's Daughters, will be Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, Mill Valley.

Officers elected are Lynn Baker, honored queen; Marsha Phipps, senior princess; Trudy Ellis, junior princess; Debbie Brunsell, guide; and Sue Linker, marshal. Mrs. Carl Schrader, 6 Encinal Avenue, Fairfax, is reservation chairman.

THE SAUSALITO Salvage Shop will have another of its fun fashion shows Wednesday at 2 p.m. at Perry's Hall, Sausalito.

Chairman Mrs. Edwin S. Long has asked all of the shop's 46 volunteer workers to participate.

Mrs. S. E. Schonwasser, shop chairman, will commentate as models show the outfits. Models are Mesdames Perry L. Brock, Francis A. Constable, Henry G. Douglas, W. M. Haynes, Charles W. Henderson, Harry Mohler, Clayton D. Mote, Frank Pasquinucci, Thomas G. Plant and James W. Smith.

Following the show all clothing will be for immediate sale. There will also be a white elephant table and grab bag. Tea and cookies will be served at the end of the show.

Proceeds go toward the shop's donations to charities, 19 of which are in Marin County, plus support of eight orphans under Foster Parents Plan and other nationwide charities.

Tea chairmen are Mesdames George Kowski, S. C. Stapp, Stanley Cowen, John F. Partridge, H. T. Rogers and John Suthoff, and pouring will be Mesdames M. K. Burlin, J. E. Laidlaw, Zella Kimball and Chester Solberg.

THE MARIN County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta sorority will hold a dessert meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Hamilton, 75 Kensington Road, San Anselmo. The nominating committee will report and an election of officers will be held.

Mrs. Bryant King of Moraga, Delta Zeta alumnae province director for Northern California, will be an honored guest and will speak to the group on "Goals for the Coming Year." Mrs. Carl Schrader, 6 Encinal Avenue, Fairfax is reservation chairman.

SAN GERONIMO Country Club will host the St. Rita's Women's Guild's annual spring fashion show and luncheon Wednesday at noon. "Magnolias and Mannequins" is the theme.

Co-chairmen are Mesdames Connie Connelly and Huga Odetta. Reservations chairmen are Mesdames Joseph Lordan and Donald Brewer.

WOLFE GRADE Parent-Teacher Association will install new officers at a box luncheon Wednesday at 11:30 at the home of Mrs. Nathalie Finkle in Kentfield.

Mrs. Mary Bingham of the Kentfield School District Board of Trustees will install the new officers, Mrs. Stanley Farber, president; Mrs. August Zunino, first vice president; Robert Geurts, second vice president; Mrs. Harry Lucheta, recording secretary; Mrs. David Houston, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Finkle, treasurer; August Zunino, auditor; and Mrs. H. A. Collins, historian.

CHAIRMEN AND workers for the current Marin Music Chest subscription drive for the summer concert series will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Wallace Scott in Belvedere at 1:30 p.m. to hear the outcome of their efforts over the past six weeks.

Greeting guests will be Mrs. Carl Riznik, Music Chest president, and Mrs. Eva Kirschner of Kentfield, member of the executive board and Artistic Council. Following the business meeting, at which Kitty Oppenheimer will preside, tea will be served. At the tea table will be Mrs. Charles P. Davies, second vice president of the Music Chest, and Mrs. Boyd Stewart of Olema, member of the audition board and Artistic Council.

Mrs. Pierre Triou, chairman of Fairhills district in San Rafael, and Miss Maria Moya of Ross will register guests. Others on the tea committee are Mesdames Babcock Smith, Merk Viglienzone, William Pease, Leland Jordan, Stryker Warren and S. E. Royall.

Music Chest subscriptions are available at county headquarters, 1133 Fourth Street, San Rafael, and through chairmen and workers in immediate localities.

THIRTY MEMBERS of the Marin Blood Center Advisory Committee and volunteer staff were honored at the annual volunteers luncheon of the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank of the San Francisco Medical Center. Tribute was given to Mrs. Louis Ivancovich, Corte Madera, chairman, Marin Blood Center Advisory Committee, and the advisory committee members: William B. Barnes, San Rafael; Ray K. Bolinger (administrator of Marin General Hospital, who was represented by Mrs. Daniel Miller, the hospital's coordinator of volunteers); Mrs. Russel Chatham, San Anselmo; Mrs. Charles Johnson, Novato; Mrs. Edward Lankenau, Greenbrae, Jules E. Mandere, San Rafael; James Rose,

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Grandma Is Many Things, Mainly Love, Strength And Understanding

DEAR HELEN:

You've had What Is a Soldier? Airman? Boy Friend? Girl Friend? etc. Here's another for your series:

LOOK AGAIN AT GRANDMA

Children love them, mothers often resent them. Fathers tolerate them, and God blesses them. They are love with gray hair, understanding with wrinkled eyes, beauty with an extra chin, and wisdom with added years.

When you are busy, grandmas are added hands; when you are lonely, they brighten the void; when you are tired, grandmas take over; and when you are happy, they are marvelous people to be near and share joys with.

No one else is so early to come, so late to leave. No one else has so much fun with your child. No one else can supply one baby with toys, candy and clothes each week and remember all the anniversaries and birthdays besides.

—Grandmas are wonderful creatures: you can hurt them with thoughtless words, but you can't injure their love for you; you find them in the way often, but they'll always be there when needed most; you can feel you don't need them, but their guidance is a boon. Grandma is your week-end vacation, your grocery store, your baby sitter and your new toys department. Grandma is your friend, your companion, your helper, your child's favorite and — your mother.

And just when the formula's ruined, baby spits up, the house is in disorder, company's coming and supper is burned, she appears with her untiring three words, "May I help?" — ANONYMOUS

DEAR HELEN:

I'm 24, male and starting on a junior, junior executive job which involves considerable socializing. I worked my way through the university, and got my degrees without learning too much small talk.

Talking business to the men is no problem, but Helen, what do you say to a woman when she gets you alone, especially when you're dancing a slow dance with her? — TONGUE TIED

DEAR T.T.:

Why don't you say, "Talking through a waltz is like kissing with your eyes open — it spoils the mood." Then, if she's young, pretty and unattached, blow in her ear. (If she's your boss's wife — forget it.)

And keep in mind that women like shy young executive-types. Stay that way!—H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'm the father of six children. In answer to "Real Man" who won't change his baby's diaper or get up with him at night, I'd say he's a real heel! I've helped my wife with all our children and feel all the closer to them and her because I've had a part. And I'm no less a man!—JIM

P.S. We were partners in getting the babies, why shouldn't we be partners in raising them?

DEAR HELEN:

In my opinion, "Real Man" is a mouse. I walked the floor many a night with a crying baby so my dear wife could rest, then walked eight miles to work in the coal mine next morning. I made beds, scrubbed, washed clothes on an old washboard at times. My wife, in turn, made my life easier wherever she could. We have been together 52 happy years, and we're still sharing work and pleasure.—HAPPY HUSBAND

DEAR HELEN:

"Real Man" asks why bother with a baby who doesn't recognize you? Well, his wife no doubt recognizes him as a real first-class boob! It takes a real man to be a real father. This guy doesn't qualify!—IRATE WIFE

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you! Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

PERSONAL TO "DESPERATE":

You aren't alone. Someone is always waiting to help a teenager who asks for it. Call the Family Service Agency of Marin, 1005 A Street, San Rafael. —H.

they learned social and recital etiquette, including taking flowers to the hostess-performer.

Born of German parents in Lorain, Ohio, Trudi spoke German before English. Her mother is Mrs. Ernest Witte of Kentfield, for whom she managed a dress shop for a brief interval.

TRUDI STILL speaks German and serves as first vice president of the new German language school of Marin, which opened on Sept. 16 at the Santa Venetia Junior High School and all of her children attend.

Music credentials of this remarkable young woman are impressive.

She began the study of paino at the age of eight and of violin at 11 and entered Oberlin Conservatory on a scholarship, graduating with a bachelor of music degree with major in piano and minor in violin in 1947.

In 1950 she received her master of music degree with major in piano from the Cleveland Institute of Music. Graduate work after that included study at the Juilliard School of Music in New York and master classes and private lessons from the famed composer Ernest von Dohnanyi at Ohio University, master classes with pianist-lecturer Leo Podolsky and piano study at the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara.

AFTER GRADUATION Trudi was assistant professor of music at Concordia College in Moorhead, Minn., from 1947 to 1952. From 1953 to 1957 she was assistant professor of piano and chamber music at Ohio University.

During these career years she did a great deal of accompanying of artists on tour and performed frequently in recitals as solo pianist and member of the faculty trio and string quartet at Concordia College and Ohio University. She also toured in duo piano recitals with Roy Stahl throughout several states.

Also a violist, she was on the string faculty at Foster Music Camp in Kentucky and Ohio University's summer music clinics. Over a period of 15 years she played the viola in seven different symphony orchestras from Ohio to California.

On coming to California in 1957 she became coach-accompanist in the voice studio of Willard Bassett, former director of the Los Angeles Conservatory.

TRUDI MET Forest Sorensen through their mutual interest in tennis, and they were married in 1959. He is a civil engineer with the P. G. and E. Company in San Francisco. They have lived in Greenbrae since 1961.

Today as a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, international professional music sorority, Trudi enjoys giving programs in senior homes and senior citizen centers as part of the sorority's music therapy project. She is book review editor of its magazine, "The Triangle."

Apparently never short of energy, she likes to square dance, and, with her husband, who used to be a square dance caller in Northern California, is a member of the Mill Wheelers Square Dance Club.

Her interests oustide of music are tennis, mosaics, sewing and baking, but she has very little time for them now, she says.

Does she miss a professional career? "No," she smiled. "I'm sort of old fashioned. I believe if you are going to have children you ought to be at home with your family."

"SPRING INTO Summer" is the theme for the ladies' play day scheduled at the Tiburon Peninsula Club on Wednesday.

The informality of the outdoor day is being underscored by serving a box lunch after a morning of tennis and before the talk by Anne Fibush, color consultant.

THE LARKSPUR Women's Club will hold its annual salad luncheon honoring the president of the Federated Women's Clubs of Marin at the club rooms in the Larkspur City Hall Wednesday at noon. Larkspur Women's Club officers Mesdames Carlotta Thomas, Marvin McCarthy and Harold Myers are hostesses. Mrs. Frank Gunner is reservations chairman.

A PERSONAL affairs orientation for Air Force wives will be presented at the Family Services Center at Hamilton Air Force Base from 7 to 10 p.m. tomorrow and from 9 a.m. to noon on Thursday.

Information will be given the Air Force wife at each session on her rights, privileges and benefits as a member of the Air Force family.

NANETTE HANTZSCHE, past worthy advisor of Tamalpais Assembly 191, has been appointed grand representative to Germany and France, in California, International Order of Rainbow for Girls. She will be honored at a reception in August.

Special Precautions For Ladies Who Wear Contact Lenses

Contact lens wearers should take special precautions in using eye make-up because it can be troublesome if the wrong kind is used or if it is applied incorrectly, beauty editor Ruth Drake advises.

She said that women who wear contacts should avoid waterproof mascara because it does not melt easily and a speck caught behind a lens could scratch the eye. She also advised against pearlized eye shadows for lens wearers because they contain tiny specks of shimmering scales for that glittery look. A speck in your eye or behind a contact lens could be troublesome.

If you wear false lashes, use adhesive sparingly. Open the tube of adhesive a few minutes before using and let it get tacky. There's less danger of its getting in the eye and on the lens that way. Mrs. Drake said that lanolin-rich creams are another don't. They can transfer from lashes to lenses and cloud them.

Eyeliner should be applied slightly above the lashes, she said, so there is less chance of it running into the eye. If a pencil is used to outline the eye, Mrs. Drake recommended lens wearers choose a hard rather than soft one, which can flake off.

Jensen-Foster Engagement Announced In Mill Valley

The engagement of their daughter, Ann Foster, to Joseph Howard Jensen has been announced by her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Gordon L. Foster of Mill Valley.

Ann is a graduate of Katharine Branson School and Occidental College. She is a deputy probation officer with the Alameda County probation Department, assigned to Las Vistas Girls' Home In San Leandro. She is the sister of Michael, Malcolm and Kirk Foster, all of Mill Valley.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Walter Olmstead of Livermore and Joseph Jensen of Fresno. He was a graduate of the University of California in 1964, where his field was anthropology. He served two years with the Peace Corps in Venezuela. He is also with the Alameda County Probation Department, working in foster home placement.

Linda L. Carlson Engaged To Wed Michael Meherin

Linda Louise Carlson and Michael Dennis Meherin are planning a late summer wedding. The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Carlson of San Rafael, and her fiance is the son of Mrs. William P. Meherin of San Anselmo and the late Mr. Meherin.

LINDA L. CARLSON

Linda was graduated from Terra Linda High School. She attended College of Marin. Mrs. Michael Nunan of San Rafael is her sister. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Carl Carlson of San Francisco.

Michael was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and College of Marin. He presently attends California Polytechnic College. Mrs. Lillian Krigbaum of San Anselmo is his grandmother, and he is the brother of Mrs. Robert Peters of Sunnyvale and Patrick Meherin of San Rafael.

Former Mill Valleyans Are Engaged To Wed In Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert B. Darroch of Sebastopol have announced the engagement of their daughter, Donna, to Edward Don Johnston, nephew of John Hardage of South Tahoe.

Donna is a graduate of Tamalpais High School, attended College of Marin and will soon be graduated from Highland School of Nursing in Oakland.

Don is also a graduate of Tamalpais High School and attended College of Marin. He is presently employed in the insulation business and lives in San Leandro. His brother Mickey lives in Sausalito. All are former residents of Mill Valley.

Barbara Martin Plans An August Wedding In Novato

Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Martin of San Rafael have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Annem to Stephen F. Curtin of Novato.

She is the sister of David and Jeffrey Martin of San Rafael. Barbara was graduated from Terra Linda High School and attends College of Marin. She is employed with Long Drugs in San Anselmo.

Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Curtin of Novato and the brother of Cynthia and Kevin Curtin of Novato. He is a Novato High School graduate and attended College of Marin. He served with the Navy in Vietnam and is employed at the Emporium at Northgate Shopping Center.

Improvement Club Elects Mrs. Louis Ivancovich

A diligent volunteer worker for the Irwin Memorial Blood Center in San Rafael, Mrs. Louis Ivancovich of Corte Madera, has been chosen as new president by the Corte Madera Women's Improvement Club, Inc.

Georgia Ivancovich, who telephones regular donors at the center, has been first vice president and program chairman during her four year membership in the club. She and her husband, a teller at the Golden Gate Bridge, moved to Marin in 1962. They are the parents of Mesdames H. D. Jacoby of Key West, Fla., and William Gonsalves Jr. of Petaluma. The Ivancovich grandchildren are Jacqueline Jacoby, 2, and Sharon Gonsalves, 19.

MRS. LOUIS IVANCOVICH

The Improvement Club has plans for a memorial honoring deceased members of the armed forces and which will be placed in the own park. Other fund-raising events include a rummage sale and exchange apron luncheon.

Georgia Ivancovich enjoys also gardening, music, baseball (her favorite team: Giants), playing the organ and vacation motor trips with her husband.

Serving with the new president will be Mesdames Lyle Cuykendall, first vice president; Glenn Worthington, second vice president; Desmond Simenza, recording secretary; Gary Campagna, corresponding secretary; E. A. Elias, auditor; Hazel Lee, parliamentarian and Miss Naomi Jensen, treasurer. Mesdames Robert Brinton and Frank Wesel are garden section chairmen.

Coed To Study In Paris Next Year

Susan has been accepted by the Central College Program for study for the next scholastic year at the Sorbonne in Paris.

A graduate of Terra Linda High School, she is a French major and a Spanish minor at CHN, has been on the Dean's List for academic achievement and is active in the foreign language clubs on campus.

Laurence Larsen Claims Bride In The East

Susan Marie Schaub of Pittsburgh, Pa., became the bride of Laurence Baker Larsen of New York City at Heinz Memorial Chapel in Pittsburgh on Saturday.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence H. Larsen of Tiburon.

The bride's sisters, Mesdames W. Patrick Davis and Robert Grevlich, were matron of honor and bridesmaid at the 10 a.m. ceremony. Roger Cruwys of San Anselmo was best man for his brother-in-law and J. Stephen Schaub of Sausalito and R. Anthony Schaub ushered.

Sycamore Extension On Advisory Agenda

Plans for the Sycamore Avenue extension will be studied by the Mill Valley Architectural Advisory Committee when it meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city manager's office at city hall.

The committee will also review plans submitted for Vogue Cleaners at 138 East Blithedale Avenue, Eastburn Tool Rental at 36 Miller Avenue, and the Shapiro Building at 383 Miller Avenue.

Insanity Plea In Drug Case

Steven Solomon Kagin, 21, arrested during February's narcotics roundup, today entered an additional plea of innocent by reason of insanity to a charge in Marin Superior Court of selling LSD and methedrine.

Kagin, of Forest Knolls, had pleaded innocent April 1. Judge Harold J. Haley today accepted the other plea and assigned two psychiatrists to examine Kagan. The defendant is accused of selling $90 worth of LSD and $150 worth of methedrine.

U.C. Campuses Begin 100th Birthday Party In Serenity

BERKELEY (UPI)—The University of California began its week-long centennial-inauguration celebration today with ceremonies in science and music on all nine campuses .

The highlight will occur Thursday when Charles J. Hitch is installed as university president at University of California at Los Angeles.

Dr. Glenn T. Seabor, chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, was scheduled to speak today at the dedication of the Ernest O. Lawrence Hall of Science on the Berkeley campus. During the dedication five young scientists were to receive $5,000 and a gold medal each for recent meritorius contributions in the field of atomic energy.

Centennial Day will be observed in downtown Oakland Wednesday when university officials and the Alameda County Historical Society place a plaque at the site of the old College of California, predecesor to the University.

Twilight concerts will be held during the week on the steps of Sproul Hall. Igor Stravinsky and Robert Craft will conduct three concerts of Stravinsky's works in the new Zellerbach Hall. Scenes and choruses from classical Greek drama will be staged Thursday through Saturday in the Greek Theater.

Six scientsits will be featured at a Centennial symposium during the week entitled "A Century of Scientific Discovery." They will survey the progress during the past 100 years in various scientific areas and outline the possibility for the future.

Marin Students To Join Concert

Three Marin County students will perform with the Treble Tones in concert at Herbert Hoover Junior High School in San Francisco at 8 p.m. Friday.

Singing with the group will be Marjorie Troupe of San Rafael and Mary Hickman of Mill Valley. Ken Bott, a Tamalpais High School student, will perform on the violin. The group is directed by Rosemary Wells of Corte Madera.

Teens Caught In Apparent Sausalito Yacht Burglary

An El Cerrito youth and two companions from Oakland were jailed early today after an apparent burglary attempt aboard a yacht in Sausalito yacht harbor.

Patrick Bruce Baker, 18, of El Cerrito, was booked for investigation of attempted burglary. Joe Charles Slenter, 18, and Darien Royce Wilson, 18, both of Oakland, were booked for investigation of trespassing.

Sausalito police said George Goodwin, sleeping aboard his yacht, awoke at 4 a.m. when he heard footsteps on deck. Through a porthole, he saw someone trying to force the door to the main salon.

Police reaching the scene found Slenter and Wilson in the docking area, which has only one exit to land.

Baker was held without bail and the other two were held on $65 bail each. All three were to appear today in Marin Municipal Court.

Church's Proposal On Planner Agenda

An application by St. Nicholas Russian Orthodox Church to build a church adjacent to the house at 102 Ross Avenue where services are now held will be considered by the San Anselmo Planning Commission at 8 p.m. today.

The commission will also consider a request by Bess and Alexander Gilroy to conduct a nursery school in a residential zone at 172 Tunstead Avenue.

Handel's 'Samson' Is Next At College

"Samson" by G. F. Handel will be performed by the College of Marin Community Chorus and Collegiate Chorale at 8 p.m. Sunday in the Fine Arts Theater on the Kentfield campus.

Soloist Sylvia Davis, Donna Petersen, Patrick Daugherty and George Baker, with Alden Gilchrist on the organ, will perform under the direction of Dr. S. Drummond Wolff.

Tribunal Upholds Picketing On Private Market Property

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Supreme Court declared today that states cannot flatly ban picketing at suburban shopping centers even if they are on private property.

The 6-3 decision came in a Pennsylvania case where a local of the Amalgamated Food Employees union (AFL-CIO) was prohibited by state court order from setting up a picket line around a market in a shopping center near Altoona.

Justice Thurgood Marshall wrote the majority opinion which may open the way for intensified union activities in the mushrooming suburban shopping developments going up throughout the country.

In other actions, the court:

Held in a Louisiana case that the constitutional guarantee of a right to trial by jury in criminal cases is binding on the states.

Louisiana laws and its constitution provide for non-jury trials for misdemeanors which are defined in the state as all those which are not punishable by death or hard labor.

Thus in Louisiana, murder, aggravated rape and aggravated kidnapping were the only charges where a unanimous verdict of a 12-member jury mandatory for conviction. The vote was 7 to 2.

Ruled, 7 to 2, in an Illinois case that a Chicago attorney had been entitled to a jury trial in a contempt of court conviction because the state legislature had not fixed a maximum penalty and the lawyer was sentenced to 24-months' imprisonment.

Granted a hearing to a theological student who was inducted after he had sent his draft card back to Selective Service in protest of the Vietnam war.

The case involving James J. Ostreicher, a 24-year-old student from Cheyenne, Wyo., has also brought disagreement between selective Service Director, Lewis B. Hershey and the justice department. The department held that a divinity student does not lose his exempt status merely because he turned in his card. Hershey sent a memorandum to the justices disagreeing on this point.

Tydings urged the Senate to kill the proposal in the omnibus crime bill and substitute a congressional investigation of the court's decisions in the field of criminal law.

At issue is a provision designed to upset court decisions limiting admissability of confessions and eyewitness testimony and to set standards for the use of federal habaes corpus writs.

Tydings said an a Senate speech: "This is the most serious and extensive assault on the Supreme Court and the independence of the judiciary in the history of our nation."

The Senate has scheduled a vote on the Tydings motion for tomorrow.

Arrest Made On Drunken Driving

Robert L. Boyd, 42, of 287 Knight Drive, San Rafael, was booked into the county jail last night on suspicion of drunken driving and hit-and-run driving.

According to a report by Deputy Ronald C. Spurrell, Boyd's car hit one belonging to Robert J. Abell, 53, of 376 Los Cerros Avenue, Greenbrae. The accident occurred at Tiburon Boulevard and Pine Terrace at 8 p.m.

A passenger in Abel's car, Mrs. John B. Ninoms, of Connecticut, reported she had a cut left arm and bruised left leg, but said she would see her own doctor.

Boyd was released on bail of $660 and is to appear Wednesday in Marin Municipal Court.

Auto Is Found In Marin City

A car stolen from Carl Olson of 83 Woodland Avenue, Apt. 25, San Rafael, on Saturday was recovered in Marin City yesterday morning, sheriff's deputies reported.

Deputies found the 1957 Chevrolet parked behind a high rise apartment at 79 Cole Drive. A boy and girl were seen riding in the automobile the night before, they said. The car's battery was missing when the auto was found.

Two Homes In Muir Woods Looted

Sheriff's deputies reported two house burglaries in the Muir Woods area Friday.

Stereo equipment and a camera were taken from the home of Donald L. Fenn, 23 Ridge Lane, and $140 in bills was taken from the home of Louis Richard Concordia between 11:15 a.m. and 1 p.m., deputies reported.

Confession Foes Await Bar Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate opponents of a bid to counteract the Supreme Court's controversial stand on the legality of confessions are hoping for backing from the American Bar Association.

The ABA's board of governors will consider today whether to publicly oppose pending Senate legislation that would allow a trial judge to rule confessions in federal criminal cases admissable if he decided they were voluntarily given.

Part of an omnibus crime control bill, the legislation would counteract the Supreme Court's ruling that confessions aren't admissable if there is delay in arraigning the suspect or if police haven't advised him of his right to remain silent and to get a lawyer before being questioned.

The Senate is slated to vote tomorrow on an amendment by Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., to delete the provision.

The ABA's 21-man board of governors was asked to oppose the section on confessions by its panel on criminal law.

Proposed Bike Route To Be Given Airing

A Tiburon man's proposed 20-mile bibycle route between Tiburon and Lake Merced in San Francisco will be considered by the security committee of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District 10:30 a.m. Friday in the administration building at the toll plaza.

The route, proposed by George T. Draper, would be over the west sidewalk on the bridge, which presently is closed to the public.

Smathers Will Bow To House 'Holidays'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate sponsor of a measure to create five new three-day federal holidays says he'll ditch it in favor of a House-passed measure offering one less long-weekend holiday.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., said yesterday he's confident the measure passed 212 to 83 by the House—and backed by business and labor alike—will clear the Senate.

"I think we will be better advised to take the House bill," said Smathers, "and if we do, I feel confident we will be able to pass it."

The House measure, once considered a sure candidate for defeat, would transfer Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Veterans Day to Monday and would make Columbus Day a national holiday—also to be celebrated on a Monday.

Inclusion of Columbus Day in the bill is credited with winning it House passage by generating support from big-city members with large Italian-American and Catholic constituencies.

The bill wouldn't take effect until 1971—a concession to calendar-makers. While it would legally apply only to federal employes, state and local governments and private employers would be expected to follow suit.

Enactment would mean five three-day weekends, since Labor Day already falls on Monday.

Smathers' bill would have included Thanksgiving and Independence Day among the Monday holidays—as well as Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and Veterans Day—but didn't include Columbus Day.

The senator, who said he didn't expect Senate action before June, spoke on his weekly radio-television show for Florida stations.

12 Marinites On Graduation List

Skies Overcast, But Air Team Puts On Its Show

Under overcast skies, the Air Force's crack aerial team, the Thunderbirds, thrilled a crowd estimated at more than 35,000 at Armed Forces Day observances yesterday at Hamilton Air Force Base.

It was the largest crowd of visitors in the history of the base, according to Col. Harry W. Shoup, commander of the 78th Fighter Wing, host for the day.

Although the gates to Hamilton were opened at noon, traffic soon filled the streets from both gates to the flight line. There was a continuous line of slow moving traffic from the flight line to the gates. At the north gate, traffic was lined north for a mile on Nave Drive and north and south on the off ramps of Highway 101 for more than a mile.

Many people did not get into the base for the show. Instead they went to Bel Marin Keys, Highway 37 and the Black Point area.

It took more than two hours after the Thunderbird's show for the crowd to get off the base.

Prior to the Thunderbirds, the crowd saw various airplanes on display and were able to go inside them.

They included the C-124 Globemaster, the HC-130 Hercules, the C-119 Flying Boxcar, the F-101 Voodoo, the F-102 Delta Dagger, the F-104 Starfighter, the F-106 Delta Dart, the B-57 jet bomber, the T-33 trainer, the T-37 primary jet trainer, the T-38 supersonic jet trainer and the CH-53 heavy assault helicopter.

The Thunderbirds were the main attraction as they have been in the past. Their fast-moving show put some formation in front of the crowd every 30 seconds.

Their low altitude near misses and turns right in front of the crowd drew gasps from the audience. The cloud cover was at 10,000 feet, so it did not interfere with the maneuvers of the high show of the precision team most of whose formations are done under 7,000 feet.

Three Injured In Collisions After Armed Forces Fete

As heavy traffic headed south on Highway 101 yesterday, from an Armed Forces day celebration at Hamilton Air Force Base, two chain-reaction collisions were reported by the California Highway Patrol.

Three persons suffered minor injuries.

Jessie A. Peden, 47, of San Mateo, was treated for neck strain at Novato General Hospital, after her car was hit in the rear by one driven by Bruce A. Dreier, 18, of 45 Berens Drive, Kentfield, patrolmen reported.

A car driven by Audrey M. Guillory, 32, of Oakland, started a chain collision with cars ahead driven by Sanara L. Greig, 22, of 1128 Third Street, Novato, and Jack H. De Barrows, 46, of El Cerrito, according to patrolmen.

Mrs. Guillory's sons, Brian, 2 and Michael, 7, were examined at Novato General Hospital with no apparent injuries.

Sorensen Gives Full Backing To Kennedy's Bid

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy "is better prepared to be president than Jack Kennedy was in 1960," a former White House adviser to the late president said Saturday night.

Theodore C. Sorensen, speaking at a fund-raising cocktail party at the San Rafael home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morgan, also said Senator Kennedy, "because of the times, has deeper moral convictions" than his late brother had before he became president.

Sorensen dismissed Senator Kennedy's "ruthless image," declaring "this man feels more for the poor and unfortunate than any man I know."

Sorensen predicted that Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy would try to throw his support to Vice President Hubert Humphrey at the Democratic National Convention. "A vote for McCarthy in the California primary is a vote for Humphrey," he said.

Coffees For Baar

Public coffees for Louis H. (Bud) Baar, candidate for Marin County supervisor in the Third District, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Bevans, Castro Road, Forest Knolls, and at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Chiarenza, 74 Billou Street, San Rafael.

Marin City Pool Plans Discussed

Building a swimming pool at the Manzanita Community Center in Marin City is under Consideration by the Marin City Community Services District board.

A 30-by-60-foot pool and a 40-by-75 foot pool were mentioned as possibilities at the board meeting Thursday, according to Charles W. Story, CSD director. The smaller pool, which would be outdoors, would cost about $40,000 and the larger one, which would be indoors, would cost about $90,000, he said.

Both prices would include dressing rooms, fencing and some landscaping, and the more expensive figure would probably cover a wading pool. Story said that since federal funds may not be used for indoor pools, there was discussion of alternate ways of financing such a project.

The board also heard a presentation by Everett Brandon of Plan of Action for Challenging Times, a San Francisco organization which counsels minority groups and areas. Everett told the directors how his firm could show Marin City residents how to accomplish their community goals.

A gift of $202 from the People Against Racism was presented to the board by attorney Bella Aaron of San Rafael. The money is to be used to buy program equipment, Story said.

The board made arrangements for six college students to be employed at the Manzanita Center this summer under the New Careers Program of the Sausalito Teachers Educational Program.

The board also recommended to the Housing Development office that commercial space in its building be leased to three young women for a sewing shop. The seamstresses are Linda Duvall, Alvena Roary and Delores Johnson.

Budget Review Begins Tomorrow

County Administrator Alan Bruce's preliminary budget recommendation for 1968-69 calls for a spending program of $28,256,460, compared with the current budget of $27,942,178.

The proposed budget will go to the board of supervisors tomorrow.

The budget is in line with the supervisors' directive to freeze the tax rate at the current $2.30 rate per $100 of assessed valuation.

"There is a lid on it, properly placed there by the supervisors," Bruce said. "If the lid is to be kept on, it will not be possible for the board of supervisors to increase any segment of the budget, without decreasing another segment to the same extent."

The budget is 1.1 per cent over the current one, whereas the average annual increase over the past 10 years has been 12.1 per cent.

County employees, totaling 1,191 this year, would be cut to 1,154 under the administrator's recommended budget.

Comparing Marin's budget with others in the state, Bruce noted that 50 other counties had higher budgets per capita and that only seven were lower. Thirty-eight counties had higher property taxes per capita than Marin; only 19 were lower, he added.

The total budget for 1968-69 would have been $30,144,735 on the basis of original requests made by the various departments.

After negotiations with the county administrator's office, the departments whittled their requests to a total of $28,960,923. This was further pared by the administrator to the present $28,256,460.

The supervisors have set June 17 through 26 for budget hearings.

Following is a list of the major department budgets recommended by the administrator, with the amounts requested the second time by the departments in parentheses:

Communications, $302,570, (same as requested).

Capital improvements (such as additions and improvements at the Civic Center complex, Juvenile Hall and health building alterations) $1,105,475, ($1,135,475 requested).

Data processing operations, $270,320, (same as requested) and data processing systems, $176,111 (same as requested).

Sheriff, $1,110,544, ($1,181,747 requested). The sheriff is asking for 12 additional employees, while the administrator recommends only three more.

Juvenile Hall, $667,606, ($683,052 requested).

Public defender, $147,917, ($150,485 requested).

Planning department, $387,697, ($404,262 requested). The department proposes an open space study with at least one professional position, but the administrator recommends deletion of this study and elimination of a senior planner position. The administrator also recommends lower salaries than requested for two principal planners and five senior planners.

County pound, $200,608 (same as requested).

War on Poverty programs, $50,350, ($127,950 requested). The biggest cut proposed by the administrator is in the community action program under the Economic Opportunity Act. The administrator recommends $25,000 for this program instead of the $100,000 requested.

Medical department, $191,239, (same as requested).

Hospital and medical care (for indigents), $329,200, (same as requested).

JUNE 4 BALLOT

Proposed Civic Center Fairfax Issue

(First of two articles)

Fairfax residents will go to the polls on June 4 to decide the fate of $500,000 in bond issues which, if approved, will finance construction of a new city hall and fire station.

(Measure A, the $510,000 San Anselmo school bond issue, will not be voted on in Fairfax.)

Measure C authorizes the expenditure of $200,000 for construction of a 6,012-square-foot city hall in Fairfax Park on Bolinas Avenue. The building will house both the city offices and the police department.

The bonds will be repaid at a rate of $38,500 a year for 25 years, according to City Mgr. David J. Sumbardo. Cost to the taxpayer will be 29 cents per $100 assessed valuation on the tax rate or $17.50 a year on a $25,000 home. The city's present tax rate would be increased to $2.03, becoming the highest rate in the city's history, if the bonds are approved.

The 1966-68 city council which placed the bond measures on the ballot, promised to use the city's annual cigarette tax revenues of $12,500 to help offset the burden of the taxpayer.

If the $12,500 is used to pay for the bonds, the tax levy would be 20 cents and the cost to the property owner would drop to $12 a year on a $25,000 home.

However, actions and promises of a previous council are not binding on a new council. Two new city councilmen, both opposed to the bond issues, took office in April. On May 14 they won a 3-2 council vote to oppose the bond issues. It is unlikely the new council would be willing to use the $12,500 for bond payments.

The 1966-68 city council placed the bond issues on the June ballot in response to a recommendation of a citizens committee appointed to study the proposed general plan, which since has been adopted. Prepared by the county planning staff, the general plan calls for relocation and reconstruction of city facilities as a key step in the recommended program to upgrade the town.

Plans for the new buildings were prepared by Charles B. Stickney, a Berkeley architect. The new fire station will meet the existing city's needs, according to Sumbardo. Any future growth of the city to the west will require a new substation rather than enlargement of the new station, he said.

The fire station will contain a truck room large enough to house five engines, a dormitory for 12 men, communications, drill and day rooms, a kitchen and a private office for the fire chief.

The city hall will contain a general office area for city employees, a private office for the city administrator, a small conference room, a supply room and an area for office equipment. The police department will have squad, identification, interrogation and locker rooms, a waiting area with the main desk, restrooms, an employees lounge, four offices and a storage area.

Chambers for the city council were dropped from the plan because they would cost an additional $100,000.

TWINS

Brother, Sister Top Seniors

Charles W. Barboni, 20, and a twin sister, Stephanie, members of a family well known in Marin County dairying circles, have been elected presidents of their respective senior classes at college.

Charles was elected president of the senior class for next year at the University of California at Davis. He is majoring in agricultural economics and will be the third generation of his family in the dairy business.

They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. William Barboni, Hicks Valley Road, Petaluma, and the grandchildren of Charles C. Barboni, longtime dairy operator in Marin County.

The grandfather, a native of Point Arena, was one of the founders of the Petaluma Cooperative Creamery in 1913, and in 1930, helped found the Marin Dell Milk Company, of which he was a director and later a vice president.

Barge Buying Before Council

A proposal to purchase a barge to serve as a community center will be considered by the Sausalito City Council when it meets at 8 p.m. tomorrow at city hall. The barge proposal comes from the recreation commission.

The council also will hear reports from the city manager on Vina Del Mar Park, the recently-approved federal 701 planning grant and the Marin County Economic Opportunity Council.

Bids will be considered for widening of Bridgeway between Easterby and Olive streets.

DEMOLITION AND REMOVAL OF IMPROVEMENTS
MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 10:00 A.M., June 3, 1968, for:

| Deed Reference | | | Street Address |
|---|---|---|---|
| Book | O.R. | Page | |
| 722 | " | 259 | 1010 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard |
| 1372 | " | 44 | 1006-1008 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard |
| 514 | " | 23 | 944-950-958 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard |
| 514 | " | 23 | 940-942 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard |
| 514 | " | 23 | 3 Stetson Avenue |
| 2087 | " | 151 | 999 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard (Southeast corner at College Avenue) |

Contractor shall remove all improvements on above listed sites, including, but not limited to, buildings, driveways, foundations, walkways, curbs, drainage structures, sewer pipes, cesspools, septic tanks, bushes, shrubbery (not trees), fences not serving inhabited improvements, posts, walls & poles. Certain improvements shall be preserved as shown on plans and described in specifications for this work.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including General Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten percent (10%) of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the Bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 10:00 A.M. in Room No. 343, Marin County Civic Center, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will award the bid at 1:30 P.M., June 5, 1968, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

TIME LIMIT

The contractor shall commence work on June 17, 1968. The fourteen (14) days intervening between opening of bids and commencement of work will be the period for executing the necessary contract documents. All work shall be completed not later than July 15, 1968. Special Attention is called to the fact that buildings at 999 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard will not be released to the contractor until July 1, 1968. See Section E, paragraph 1.

INSPECTION OF SITE

Each bidder should visit the site of the proposed work and fully acquaint himself with the existing conditions there relating to the demolition and site clearance, and should fully inform himself as to the facilities involved, the difficulties and restrictions attending the performance of the contract. The bidder should thoroughly examine and familiarize himself with the plans, all special provisions, and contract documents. The contractor by the execution of the contract shall in no way be relieved of any obligation under it due to his failure to receive or examine any form or legal instrument or to visit the site and acquaint himself with the conditions there existing and the local public agency will be justified in rejecting any claim based on facts regarding which he should have been on notice as a result thereof.

ENGINEER'S ESTIMATE

| ITEM | | QUANTITY |
|---|---|---|
| 2. | Imported Backfill Material | 200 C. Y. |

The foregoing quantities are approximate only, being given as a basis for comparing bids, and the Board of Supervisors of Marin County does not, expressly or by implication, agree that the actual quantities will correspond therewith.

LABOR

In accordance with the provisions of the labor code, the Board of Supervisors has determined that the general prevailing rate of wages applicable to the work to be done which shall be the minimum rates paid on the project, are as follows:

| RATE PER HOUR | SKILLED LABOR CLASSIFICATION |

Rev. 7-67

For positions not listed above, the minimum rate paid for skilled, intermediate or unskilled labor shall be not less than minimum wage per hour and shall conform to the particular craft or classification of workmen employed on the project.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the General Specifications for the Relocation or Demolition and Removal of Improvements to clear Right-of-Way of the Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated June, 1965.

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractor shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to County, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs, to achieve this goal.

Board of Supervisors
Marin County
No. 727 May 13, 20, 27, 1968

SOUTH SAN PEDRO ROAD 4 LANE WIDENING
JOINT PROJECTS NOS. 2 AND 3
JOB. NO. 764
MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 2:00 P.M., June 3, 1968, for:

Roadway construction involving grading, asphalt concrete paving, base and subbase; construction of curbs, gutters, sidewalks, islands, retaining walls, drainage facilities, sanitary sewer, piles, electrical facilities, irrigation system, and other related construction.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, cross sections and Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications, General Specifications, standard plans, or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtainined by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time alloted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the Bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposals shall be filed with George H. Gnoss, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California. For securing plans and specifications, please refer to Paragraph 4 above.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 10:30 A.M. in Room No. 343, Marin County Civic Center, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will award the bid at 1:30 P.M. June 5, 1968, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

TIME LIMIT

The Contractor shall commence work on or before the 15th day following the date of written notification of approval of the contract by the Director of Public Works and shall complete all work on the project within 120 calendar days counting from and including the said 15th day.

How Marin Government Costs Compare With San Francisco

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors last week adopted a fiscal 1969 budget of $488.2 million for operation of the combined city and county governments. That figures out at about $650 for each of the 750,000 men, women and children in San Francisco.

It is easy to figure per capita cost of local government for San Francisco, where all the eggs are in one basket. Schools, as well as functions performed by county, cities, and nearly all special districts, are included in the single budget. (San Francisco has begun acquiring special districts of late, but they still have not proliferated much.)

In Marin, where the eggs are in scattered nests all over the place — with some hard to locate — it is not so simple to determine how much government is costing per capita. If budgets of cities, county, school districts and special districts are totaled, however, the cost will not be much below San Francisco's.

Per capita property taxes in Marin last year totaled $268.84, and those in San Francisco totaled $259.79, according to California Taxpayers Association figures. The property tax bears a greater share of the total cost of government here than in San Francisco.

In Marin, what the taxpayer gets for his money varies widely — as does the amount he pays. The tax rate per $100 assessed valuation ranges from a low of about $6 in some parts of the county to a high of about $12 in some others.

Biggest budget of government in Marin is the county budget, which for the current fiscal year totaled $28,650,267. What it will be for fiscal 1969 is yet unknown. County supervisors will not start work on it until after the June 4 primary elections. But unless a long-time trend is reversed, it will be higher than for this year.

The County of Marin performs many services for all its citizenry — those within the 11 cities as well as those in the unincorporated territory. A considerable portion of the budget, however, is spent only outside city limits.

The county planning department (one of those departments which serves almost entirely the unincorporated areas) has estimated Marin's population as of Jan. 1 of this year at 204,952. Thus, if the whole county budget were applied county-wide, the spending would be $140 per capita.

By no means is the whole county budget spent county-wide, however.

Most or all of the following county expenses are for the people of the unincorporated areas: board of supervisors, administrator, revenue bureau, purchasing, county counsel, personnel, property management, capital improvements, bond interest, general services, central mail and service, data processing, engineering, Northwest Marin Justice Court, parks and recreation, and the sheriff's department except for the jail, the civil division, and the narcotics bureau.

The current budgets for these total $5,955,195, or about 21 per cent of the total budget.

The county planning department's estimates show 63,482 people in the unincorporated portions of the county. So the services performed solely for them by the county government would total only $92.35 per capita.

However, these people share also in all the other county services, along with the residents of the cities. As they constitute one-third of the total population it would therefore seem equitable to charge them with one-third of all the remaining county seats.

Subtracting the "unincorated only" portion from the total budget leaves $22,695,072 which the county spends for operations presumably benefiting the total population. One-third of this is $7,565,024.

If this last figure is added to the "unincorporated only" total, the budget share for residents outside the cities would be $13,520,219. This would cover services which the county performs, in some fashion, in lieu of city services in the unincorporated areas, plus the same areas' one-third share of county services for everybody. For the 63,482 outside the cities, it amounts to just over $210 each.

How about the city residents? Do they pay more or less for similar services?

This is hard to arrive at because some cities in Marin perform more services than others. Most of them do not provide sewer service: a couple do not provide fire service. Special districts get into the picture. But these same special districts perform these same services for residents outside the cities. There is no county sewer service, and the county fire department is set up to fight timber and range fires and battle structural fires only where there is no fire district for that purpose.

Populations of the 11 cities — again drawn from the county planning department's estimates — as of Jan. 1 were as follows: Belvedere, 2,627; Corte Madera, 8,612; Fairfax, 7,506; Larkspur, 8,215; Mill Valley, 12,016; Novato, 28,731; Ross, 2,698; San Anselmo, 13,515; San Rafael, 35,446; Sausalito, 6,644; Tiburon, 5,370.

City budgets for the current fiscal year are: Belvedere, $464,130; Corte Madera, $788,666; Fairfax, $476,921; Larkspur, $835,259; Mill Valley, $1,800,529; Novato, $1,008,860; Ross, $190,868; San Anselmo, $1,214,652; San Rafael, $3,649,142; Sausalito, $1,203,427, and Tiburon, $441,159.

These work out at the following city costs per capita: Belvedere, $183; Corte Madera, $91.75; Fairfax, $63.60; Larkspur, $101.60; Mill Valley, $149; Novato, $35; Ross, $73.40; San Anselmo, $89; San Rafael, $103; Sausalito, $182; and Tiburon, $83.

Belvedere and Mill Valley provide sewer service, as does Larkspur, for part of its residents. All provide fire protection except Novato and Tiburon, where there are separate fire district taxes.

The county-wide functions of the county government figure out at $110 per capita for the entire population, compared with $210 total county cost for those in the unincorporated areas.

Thus, it might appear that the same services were performed for a resident of the unincorporated area for $210 (the per capita share of county-wide services) that cost a total of $293 for a resident of Belvedere (city cost of $183 plus share of county budget of $110).

However, the resident of the unincorporated area usually must pay a special district's costs for sewers, fire protection, and even recreation, to say nothing of street lights if he wants them.

The result is that the total costs of government services run higher in some unincorporated areas than any of the cities. And all these additional costs must be born from the real property tax, since none of the special districts is able to use revenues from sales and cigarette taxes, business licenses, gasoline tax, etc.

Three Girls In Western Queen Title

Three Novato girls have entered the contest for queen of Western Weekend, according to Mrs. Lloyd Loftus, chaperone of the contest.

Donna, 14, is in the ninth grade at Hill Junior High School. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bellucci of 1 Equestrian Court.

Jane, 17, is a senior at Novato High School. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Fairweather of 80 H Lane.

A queen and two princesses will be selected at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Horsemen's Arena on Buegia Lane. The contestants will be judged on their attractiveness, looks in western attire and their riding ability, Mrs. Loftus said.

They will reign over the events of Western Weekend, lead the parade on June 15 and lead the grand entry parade into the arena for the rodeo on June 16.

Past Chairmen Of GOP Group Endorse Bagley

Gearld Misner, David Winslow and Elmer Worlund, all past chairmen of the Marin County Republican Central Committee, have announced their "enthusiastic and unqualified support" for the re-election of Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

Bagley's "Republican credentials are unquestioned," they said. "He speaks his mind, votes his conscience, but at the same time has always upheld Republican principles and the Republican Party," they said in a press release.

"There is no one in the North Bay area who has done more for the Republican Party than Bill Bagley." they declared.

Bagley's opponent in the Republican primary on June 4, Clay Barham, has campaigned principally on the basis that Bagley "is a better Democrat than a Republican."

Resets Session

The San Rafael Sanitation District board has scheduled a meeting for noon May 28 because it could not gather a quorum for last Thursday's meeting.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

The first heart transplant was a calculated, well-planned, well-timed event. Prof. Christiaan Barnard and his skillful team had done more than 1,000 heart operations to repair congenital defects and to replace scarred valves. There was a backlog of 2,000 cases waiting to get into Groote Schuur hospital.

THE GREATNESS of the moment struck Dr. Bernard just after the had removed Louis Washkansky's heart and looked down and saw the empty space in the chest. "... The realization that there was a man lying in front of me without a heart but still alive was the most awe-inspiring moment of all."

There was no time to dwell on this thought, because the donor's heart was ready for transplantation. At the end of the operation another crisis had to be faced. Would the transplanted organ begin to beat and would it have the stamina to sustain life?

THERE WAS NO letdown on the following day, because news of the event had spread around Cape Town (South Africa), and, the world. Journalists and reporters descended on the hospital; Dr. Barnard and his surgical team were dogged for pictures, statements, comments and some questions which could not be answered.

Publicity at times like these is difficult to avoid, but the surgeon's first responsibility is to his patient.

Premature reports are likened to a double-edged sword; flattering when good but devastating when bad. The moral and ethical issues of transplanting a heart are open for debate, mainly because the organ must be removed from the donor as near as possible to the moment of death. Skeptics raise the question that the physicians may not try to prolong the life of a person near death because they want organs for transplant.

THE DONOR, Denise Darvall, a 25-year-old bank clerk who had been injured in an automobile accident, was cremated a few days after death. She was gone, but her heart was still alive.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

AUSTRALIAN DISEASE

D. D. writes: My doctor tells me that my abdominal pain is due to spasm of the bowel. But am confused, as a friend tells me this is called Australian disease. And I never have been there.

REPLY

Neither have the millions of other Americans who suffer from irritable bowel. This is one of the most common of all digestive disorders and is caused by nervousness or faulty diet. It has nothing to do with the continent on which we live.

FINDING SLIPPTD DISK

REPLY

A myelogram (X-ray of the spine after the injection of a dye) is the best way to locate the defect. Clews are offered by symptoms and physical examination.

Today's Health Hint — Lack of iron does not lead to that "tired feeling."

BEST SHOWS FOR TONIGHT

KTVU (2), 7:30 p.m. — "Premiere Movie" presents "Ulysses," a contemporary version of the Homeric adventures of the King of Ithaca and his warriors during the Trojan battles. Kirk Douglas, Anthony Quinn, and Silvana Mangano star.

KPIX (5), 7:30 p.m. — "One Nation, Indivisible" is a Group W special examining the racial crisis of the American cities and discussing positive solutions. Among those who will be participating will be Mayors Joseph Alioto, John V. Lindsay, Carl B. Stokes, and Gen. James M. Gavin and Henry Ford II.

KGO (7), KNTV (11), 10 p.m. — "In the Name of God" is a one-hour documentary special showing the modern missionary attempting to solve the "earthly" problems of his parishioners around the world. The program focuses on Catholic and Protestant missionaries and their work in poverty-ridden outposts in the South Pacific and India.

KQED (9), 10 p.m. — "The Survivors" is a documentary of the tragic fate of civilian casualties in Vietnam. It was filmed by the Committee of Responsibility, Inc., an organization whose program is to obtain hospital facilities and medical services in the U. S. for war-injured Vietnamese children who cannot be adequately cared for in Vietnam. Reporter William Chapin of Sausalito will talk with Dr. George Roth of Mill Valley, who brought the first three children to Mount Zion for treatment.

KQED (9), 9 p.m. — "NET Journal" presents "No Hiding Place," a profile of several committed residents of Mount Vernon, N.Y., who are battling the tide of racial intolerance.

Novato Park-Rec Commissioners Seeking Help

Drafting a letter of information on Pioneer Memorial Park and plans to send it to all service culbs in Novato, will be the main item on the agenda of the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the Community House.

The city council had asked the commission to meet with service clubs' representatives to recruit contributions for the development of the park. The council has voted $8,000 for plans for the first stage development.

Other items on a short agenda for the commission include the proposed teen club summer activities at San Jose Junior High School, the Novato Minors teenage drama group co-sponsorship with the Novato Federated Women's Club and the director's monthly report.

Boy Injured In Head-On Crash

A 14-year-old Corte Madera boy was injured Friday in a head-on collision on Paradise Drive in front of Campbell Bishop Chevrolet, Corte Madera, police reported.

John Firstenfeld of 44 Estrada Lane, passenger in a car driven by Barney Bruce Barbour, 17, of 16 Estrada Lane, was treated for scalp cuts at Marin General Hospital.

Police said Barbour's car crossed the double line at 5:20 p.m. and collided with a car driven by Glen Ross Chaplin of 396 Prince Royal Drive, Corte Madera. Chaplin's wife, Lucille, received minor injuries and said she would see her own doctor, police reported.

Novato GOP Women To Hear Police Chief

Law enforcement in Novato will be discussed by Police Chief Robert Di Grazia before the Novato Federated Republican Women at a public meeting at 1 p.m. Tuesday at Nave Lanes.

A business meeting at 11 a.m., and a luncheon, at 12:15 p.m., will precede Di Grazia's talk.

TELEVISION REVIEW

'Laugh-In' Is The Big Winner

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It was "Sock it to me" time last night at the television academy as three Emmy awards were given to the raucous "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-in."

The NBC show, a mad rocket-gun combination of outrageous gags and blackouts, won the award as best musical or variety series, and special. Laugh-in was presented as a special before taking to the air as a series in midseason.

In the other major categories, the awards last night had the look of a rerun. Repeat winners included: Lucille Ball, best actress-star in a comedy series; Don Adams of "Get Smart," best actor-star in a comedy series; Barbara Bain of "Mission: Impossible," best actress-star in a dramatic series; Bill Cosby of "I Spy," best actor-star in a dramatic series; "Mission: Impossible," outstanding dramatic series.

Other awards went to Maureen Stapleton, best actress in a single dramatic role, for "Among the Paths to Eden"; Melvyn Douglas, best actor in a single dramatic role, for "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night"; best single dramatic program, "Elizabeth the Queen," Hallmark Hall of Fame; best comedy series, "Get Smart"; best supporting actress in a drama, Barbara Anderson, "Ironside"; best supporting actor in a comedy, Werner Klemperer, "Hogan's Heroes"; outstanding writing in drama, Loring Mandel, "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night."

Two of the supporting Emmies brought a sentimental reaction. The award for best supporting actress in a comedy went to Marion Lorne, the fluttery witch of "Bewitched." She died two weeks ago at age 82.

Elizabeth Montgomery, star of "Bewitched," accepted the award for Miss Lorne and said, "We owe her a big thanks for all the happiness she brought us."

Two second bananas who approach starring status were cited for "outstanding individual achievement": Art Carney of "The Jackie Gleason Show" and Pat Paulsen of "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour."

A special board of trustees award went to Donald H. McGannon, president and board chairman of Group W, the Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. He was cited for public service, dynamic leadership, and "his early recognition of broadcasting's need to train and employ individuals from minority groups."

In contrast to the over-length Oscar show, the Emmy telecast ran an hour and 45 minutes. But the awards were deadeningly profuse; there were 52 categories, and 10 writers claimed their Emmies for "Laugh-in." The show itself proved an embarrassment to the television clan. The proceedings in New York often dissolved into chaos, with master of ceremonies Dick Van Dyke struggling to keep order.

Frank Sinatra, in Hollywood, had better luck.

The speaker of the House of Representatives has an official mace placed on his desk in each session but there is no mace in the Senate.

Drivers Ready To Concede Indy To Turbines

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Drivers of conventional racers were about ready today to concede the 52nd 500-mile Memorial Day race to one of the Lotus turbines that dashed to Indianapolis Motor Speedway qualifying records over the weekend.

But they could be premature, said S. A. Silbermann, metalurgist and long-time U.S. Auto Club official who heads the 500 technical committee.

He noted that the weather was damp and chilly Saturday when Graham Hill of London set the 10-mile qualifying record at 171.208 m.p.h. and Lotus teammate Joe Leonard of San Jose, Calif., raised it to 171.559.

Silbermann said the picture could change if Memorial Day is hot.

"The turbines' horsepower and torque will drop off about 20 per cent if the temperature is 85 degrees," he said. "They hit their peak at 59 degrees."

Bobby Unsr of Albuquerque, N.M., winner of the last three USAC championship races and defending Indianapolis champion A.J. Foyt Jr., Houston, were among a host of drivers and car owners who said the piston cars will have to run a separate race behind the turbines. They said the "heat engines" will ruin auto racing.

Silbermann commented, "did you see that crowd Saturday? Turbines won't kill racing. The crowd will always turn out to see something new and controversial."

Fifteen cars that qualified Saturday averaged 167.225 m.p.h. against 163.577 for the first 15 last year.

Mario Andretti of Nazareth, Pa., who held the track qualifying record of 168.982 with a piston engine, burned a piston Saturday in his turbocharged Ford. He came back with a replacement engine that had run only 10 miles and was fourth-fastest at 167.691.

Andretti will share the second row with Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex., 167.613 in a Mongoose turbocharged Offenhauser, and Bobby Unser's brother Al, 167.065 in a new four-wheel-drive Lola-Ford which could challenge the turbines after a little more adjustment.

Other Saturday qualifiers included Roger McCluskey, Tucson, Ariz., 166.976 in an Eagle-turbocharged Offenhauser; Foyt, shooting for an unprecedented fourth 500 victory, 166.821 in a Coyote-Ford; Gordon Johncock, Hastings, Mich., 166.775 in a Gerhardt turbocharged Offenhauser, and Dan Gurney, Santa Ana, Calif., 166.512 in one of his own Eagles with semi-stock Weslake-Ford block.

Art Pollard of Medford, Ore., put the third of the Lotus turbines, all entered by Andy Grantelli of STP Corp., into the line-up at 166.297.

Other qualifiers included one rookie, Jim Malloy, Denver, Colo., and previous starters Wally Dallenbach, East Brunswick, N.J.; Jimmy McElreath, Arlington, Tex., and Jerry Grant, San Diego, Calif.

Rain fell almost all day yesterday and the weather cleared only long enough for one more driver, Jochen Rindt of the Grand Prix circuit, to qualify. He put a Brabham-Repco into the line-up at 164.144, slower than any of Saturday's qualifiers.

I Didn't See A Shark On This Abalone Hunt

THAR SHE BLOWS! — I went abalone picking for the first time the other day. Well, not really. I just went along as a spectator. You ain't going to get THIS kid diving under those rocks! That's work.

Just getting to the beach about killed me. You don't have to be a mountain goat to get there but it would help. Getting there was an ordeal, getting out was ridiculous. I'm still so sore I can hardly walk.

The abalone pickin' safari consisted of about 20 hardy Marinites headed by the hearty and hardy-har-har Nave family of local bowling fame — William Sr., William Jr., Bob and Rich.

When those characters go after abalone they don't exactly pick anything that resembles Waikiki Beach. With a tip from advance scout Les Taylor, the local liquor mogul, they choose a spot north of Bodega Bay that resembled the Normandy Beach or the Shores of Tripoli, only nobody was shooting at us.

Remained High On The Beach

Knowing my distaste for anything remotely physical, the Naves thankfully appointed me corporal of the Shark Watch. Which was very kind of them because that meant I could remain on the beach, high and dry — well, high, anyway — while the others displayed their physical prowess in the briny. Incidentally, I didn't see a shark all day.

Anyway, the next time the Naves invite me to the bottom of a cliff on the rugged coast of the Pacific Ocean they ought to pick a better day. I mean, last Thursday could have resulted in quite a tragedy. That was the day, you will recall, when the entire Pacific Coast was warned of a possible tidal wave.

I didn't hear about it until the next morning. Plop!

Early Signups For Astrodome Trip

DOME ON THE RANGE — Twelve Marinites already have signed up for the Bay Area Giants Boosters Club's four-day trip to the Houston Astrodome July 26-29.

They are Dr. and Mrs. W. Porter Forcade of Sausalito, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Kelly of Larkspur, Mrs. Gertrude Venitz of San Rafael, Mrs. Irma Cunha and Mrs. Al Cunha of Tiburon, Mr. and Mrs. William Vollenweider of Corte Madera, Al Tognoli of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hobbs of Greenbrae.

GTS Travel of San Rafael is conducting the tour.

ARMCHAIR COACHES — George Lee of San Rafael, the new head coach of the San Francisco Warriors, had just one favor to ask of us after his appointment to the top job last week, to wit:

"Please don't publish my home address anymore. Already I've been besieged by phone callers telling me how to coach the team."

San Rafael Nine Wins Two Games

The Litchfield Braves of San Rafael extended their winning streak to six while snapping an 11-game streak and downing two strong opponents on the road Saturday and yesterday.

On Saturday, the Braves knocked off Marysville, 9-5, blowing a 4-0 lead, and finaly winning, 9-5, behind the fine relief pitching of Greg Tellis.

The Braves then snipped former state champion Hatzell Radio's 11-game win streak in El Cerrito, winning 6-3, as Doug Wilson and Ron Gasper drove in three runs apiece.

Cerrudo Finishes In Third

Ron Cerrudo of San Rafael came within two strokes of winning the $20,000 Magnolia State Classic Golf Title at Hattiesburg, Miss., yesterday, but settled for third place money.

The 23-year-old rookie professional finished the 72-hole tournament with a 9-under-par total of 271.

The tournament was won by B. R. McLendon of Montgomery, Ala. who defeated the 62-year-old National Seniors champion Pete Fleming on the ninth hole of a sudden death playoff. McLendon and Fleming tied for first place with scores of 269 and McLendon ended the playoff with an 18-foot birdie putt.

Marinites Win Regatta

R. G. Montgomery of San Rafael was the Class B winner with a 3.110 error margin.

Other Marin placers in Class A were Jack Peetz of Corte Madera, third; Ed Masonic of Corte Madera, fifth; J. J. Regan of Terra Linda, eighth; Rich Naylor of Greenbrae, 10th, and C. M. Bradley of San Rafael, 13th. All were from the Loch Lomond Yacht Club.

Vern Rasmussen of San Rafael finished second in Class B, followed by R. M. Hensen of San Rafael. Bob Arney of San Rafael was sixth and P. C. Glaeser of San Rafael was 10th.

Stanford Golfers Win Pac-8 Title

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Stanford's Indians reigned as golf kings of the Pacific-8 conference despite a successfully individual title defense by Southern California's Kemp Richardson.

Stanford placed four men in the top eight and posted the low team score of 1,194, eight strokes better than the 1,202 for USC which unsuccessfully attempted to defend its championship.

Greg Pitzer led the Stanford team with 296. Sandy Adelman and Ray Isbell of the Indians were tied at 299 and Rich Harris had 300.

Giants Split Doubleheader; It's On To Atlanta Tonight

Durocher Strategy Wins Out

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Chicago Cubs caught San Francisco's Herman Franks turning the other cheek . . . and Ernie Banks followed Dick Nen's left jab with a right smash that floored the Giants.

Nen drilled a two-run homer in the fourth inning of yesterday's doubleheader nightcap at San Francisco, then bowed out in the sixth for pinch hitter Banks, whose three-run homer powered the Cubs to a 6-3 victory.

SHUTOUT

Manager Leo Durocher made the sixth inning switch from the left-hand hitting Nen to Banks, a right-hand swinger, after Giants pilot Franks replaced starting pitcher Bob Bolin with southpaw Joe Gibbon. Bolin, the victim of Nen' first homer as a Cub, had gotten two outs in the inning before walking Ron Santo and Al Spangler.

Durocher said, "When Herman put in the left-handed pitcher (Gibbon), he forced me to take out Nen and bring in a right-handed hitter. I don't know what Herman had in mind, but I certainly wasn't going to use a lefty against a lefty.

Nen was hitting .077 in 12 games.

TIED

Good Show By Marin Swimmers

Ever upward.

Marin County Athletic League entrants won two events and placed a horde of swimmers in the super-tough North Coast Section meet at Alameda Saturday, taking another giant step forward.

Redwood High School's varisty 200 medley relay team of Mac Black, Phil Jonckheer, Greg Myers and Ken Myers won in 1:46.6 as James did a 22.5 split in the free while Bruce Averill 100 back in 1:08.8.

The MCAL's stellar swimmer Bob Girvin of Drake finished third in both the 100 I.M. and 100 back, the latter won by a 55.0. Girvin did a 58.7.

For an idea of just how tough the meet is, Girvin, who holds the best MCAL time in the 400 free, would have only finished around fourth in the Class B rankings. The winning varsity time was a sensational 3:52.0.

Redwood finished a prestigious 10th in the varsity team standings, followed by Tamalpais. The Indians were second in Class B followed by Redwood in 7th.

Casper Goes Over $100,000 Mark With Runaway Win

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Methodical Billy Casper became the first player in golf history to win over $100,000 this early in the year yesterday with a runaway five-stroke victory in the Colonial National Invitation Tournament.

Casper's $25,000 first prize put him at the $103,868.64 bracket. He says the Mormon church gets 10 per cent and the government the rest.

Casper shot a closing round two-under-par 68 over the tough 7,000-yard par 70 Colonial Country Club course to finish with a 275 and become a two-time winner in the tournament.

TRIPLE WINNER

The victory also put Casper alone as the only three-time winner on the 1968 tour. He previously scored victories at Greensboro and Los Angeles.

The earliest previous date for any golfer to win over $100,000 was in June, 1967 when Arnold Palmer won $15,000 with a second-place finish in the U.S. Open to get a $113,225.63 total.

Casper was never really pressed although he started the day tied with South African Gary player, who said he shot his "worst round in five years" in soaring to a 76 for a 283 total.

Gene Littler fired a closing round 68 to finish second with an even par 280 worth $15,000. Tommy Aaron carved out an even par 70 for $9,375.

THINKING

The 36-year-old Casper, second on golf's all-time money list, said Colonial was the type of course that required a lot of thinking.

"That's the reason Ben Hogan (a five-time winner) does so well here. He has the ability to think his way around the course."

The affable Casper birdied No. 1 with an eight-foot putt, and Nos. 2 and 9 with two-footers, and drilled a 20-foot bird on No. 12.

His only hint of trouble came at the par 3 No. 8 where a five-iron landed in the middle of the green and rolled over. Casper chipped back and three-putter for a double bogey.

"I wasn't too worried even then," said Casper. "I had a large lead."

UNWORRIED

Casper was so unworried that on the next hole he fished for golf balls in a creek while Littler putted. Then he calmly walked up and knocked his ball in for a bird.

On the 18th green, a spectator shouted to Casper "don't miss it!" as he approached a short par putt.

"I won't," Casper called back. He didn't.

Casper said he would take a two-week rest from the tour. His next appearances will be at Indianapolis, Ind., in the 500 Festival, and the Canadian and British Opens.

CHANCE FOR TRIPLE CROWN

Forward Pass Gets A Rest

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—With two-thirds of racing's Triple Crown now to his credit following Saturday's six-length victory in the Preakness Stakes, Forward Pass rested at Belmont Park today, awaiting the 100th running of the Belmont Stakes on June 1.

And hard-luck Dancer's Image again was disqualified in the Preakness Stakes, although this time he finished only third with Out of the Way ahead of him as well as Forward Pass.

But to get even that close, Dancer's Imge had to bust his way between horses in the stretch and he was set back to eighth place where Martin's Jig, the horse he slammed around, finished.

Owner Peter Fuller who has appealed the Churchill Downs' stewards ruling which took away the purse and banned trainer Lou Cavalaris from all race tracks for 30 days, had no quarrel with the disqualification this time.

Forward Pass was shipped out of Pimlico early yesterday morning. Dancer's Image was scheduled to follow late today but he will go to a farm in New Jersey for a few days before continuing to Belmont Park.

The Belmont Stakes is the "big one" for each colt. Victory would make Forward Pass the ninth Triple Crown winner, the third for Calumet Farm.

Four of its earlier champions went into the final with a chance to make it. Whirlaway and Citation did. Pensive and Tim Tam finished second with Tim Tam breaking down in the testing 1½ mile race.

"We have great hopes of winning Belmont. We have to win the Belmont," Fuller said.

Sohners Split Doubleheader

Sohner Tree Service of San Anselmo and Alburt's Clothing of Alameda split a softball doubleheader Saturday night in Golden Gate League action.

Sohner notched a 3-2 victory in the first game but dropped a 1-0 nine-inning decision in the second tilt.

The Treemen this remain in second place in the nine-team league, one game behind front-running Hayward. Sohner and Hayward will tangle in a 6 p.m. doubleheader next Sunday at San Rafael's Albert Park.

Morey Swarm hurled the opening game victory against Alameda. The talented righthander limited the East Bay club to four hits in recording his 14th win of the season against three losses.

Reed, Hansen Win Net Crowns

Reed downed Raul Contreras, 2-6, 6-2, 6-3 and Miss Hansen beat Marcie Louie, 6-1, 7-5. Mike Machette and Rich Anderson captured the doubles crown, 6-3, 10-8 over Cliff Mayne and Hugh Ditzler.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Sox Win Two From A's

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Stanky's Chicago White Sox swept a Sunday doubleheader from Oakland 6-2, 7-3 and did it on a three-run homer by a pitcher and with three pinch runners all scoring runs in the same inning.

Brilliant.

The Sox, who started the season in reverse with 10 straight losses, now have won 12 of their last 16 games and soared into sixth place in the American League.

In other American League games yesterday, Detroit swept a doubleheader from Washington 5-4 and 7-0 and ended Frank Howard's consecutive game homer string at six, Cleveland took a pair from Baltimore 11-6 and 2-0, California split with Minnesota, winning 2-1 and then losing 3-2, and New York walloped Boston 11-3.

Stanky, who moved fast and furiously with second game substitutions, let pitcher Tommy John swing for himself with Oakland leading 2-1 in the fourth inning of the opener and two runners aboard.

John, whose 4-0 record shows no scars of the season-opening nightmare, rewarded the faith with a three-run homer and shut out the A's the rest of the way.

In the nightcap, Chicago was nursing a 1-0 lead in the fifth when Stanky went to work in earnest. Luis Aparicio was hit by a pitch and Ken Berry sacrificed. Pete Ward walked and Stanky inserted Buddy Bradford to run.

Tommy Davis singled for one run and Bill Voss went in to run for him. An error loaded the bases and Stanky sent up Wayne Causey as a pinch hitter. A two-run single, naturally, and Sandy Alomar in to run for Causey. Tim Cullen bunted and another run scored as the A's missed a runner at the plate. Gerry McNertney singled another run across for the Sox.

Near-Upset In Lacrosse Action

The Marin Lacrosse Club almost pulled off a stunning upset yesterday before running out of steam and losing to unbeaten Stanford, 10-6, in two overtimes.

Marin had Stanford (11-0) on a 4-3 rope going into the final minute but Stanford scored in the closing seconds to tie it, then outscore Marin, 3-1, in each overtime period for the win.

Bob Heaton took scoring honors for the game by scoring four goals. Dick Mears and Doane Leydecker added a goal apiece for Marin, now 3-5 in Northern California Lacrosse Association play.

Giants Split, Trail Cards By A Game

The Cardinals bowed to Philadelphia 4-3, extending the losing string to four. Cincinnati slugged Pittsburgh 9-3 and Houston beat Los Angeles twice, 2-1 and 3-1.

After Banks' sixth homer of the season gave Chicago a 5-0 lead, Phil Regan came out of the Cubs' bullpen to choke off a Giant rally in the bottom of the sixth and preserve Bill Hands' fourth victory. Dave Marshall chased Hands with a two-run single, but Regan got Hart to bounce into an inning-ending double play.

In the opener, Perry posted his fifth victory and first shutout of the year in a duel with Ferguson Jenkins, who surrendered Hart's seventh homer and dropped to 4-4 for the season.

Billy Williams, who stroked three of the Cubs' hits against Perry, got another in the nightcap while tying Richie Ashburn's major league record of 694 consecutive games played by an outfielder.

USC Displays Super Track Team At Pac-8 Meet

By KIMO CAMPBELL

The 1968 Pacific-8 track and field meet, held at Berkeley's Edwards Stadium on Saturday afternoon, was pre-advertised as the best conference meet ever, and the best in the nation. It is understanding the case to say that those claims were far too conservative.

With world-class athletes competing in almost every event, the sun-soaked crowd of 10,800 that watched the meet was treated to a display of excellence that may not be seen again in a college meet—until next year's Pac-8 meet.

The fabulous Trojans of the University of Southern California easily overcame an early Oregon lead to win the meet with almost insolent ease, 128 points to runner-up Oregon's 82. Host California was surprisingly potent, scoring 77 points for a strong fourth place finish.

But while El Troje showed that it will take some super performances or an act of God to keep it from successfully defending its national collegiate title on the same field June 13-15, the individual athletes made the meet. Some samples:

USC's talented hurdler, Earl McCullouch, had a long day — but it was one that Jesse Owens would have been proud of. Earl The Pearl was in second place going into his last try in the long jump. He stood at the end of the runway, tense, unsmiling, building up a reserve of self-reproach to help his jump, and started down the track slowly, like a black pearl gliding through oil, and jumped. As he came to his feet, the leap was measured: 24-11¾, seven inches above his previous best and enough to win.

The Pearl listened to the result of the measurement and broke into a huge grin, flung his arms in the air, and yelled "all Right." He capped that comeback with a strong first leg in the 440 relay, as Troy's world-record holders set a stadium mark og 39.3. Had there not been a slight misstep in the exchange between the second and third runners (Fred Kuller and O. J. Simpson) the quartet might well have broken 39 flat, a region only they have visited. McCullouch then loafed to a 13.8 win in his specialty, the hurdles (he is the record holder at 13.2 and hit 13.3 in Berkeley earlier this year) and then had enough left to run a 49 flat quarter in the mile relay.

Trojan Bob Seagren, after setting another stadium record by easily clearing 17-2½ in the pole vault, ordered the bar raised to 18 feet. His act of bravado thrilled the crowd, which sucked in its breath on each try and let it out in a disappointed "oooooh" as his cleats hit the bar each time.

UCLA's Don Domansky, a stocky lad of Russian descent, successfully defended his 440 title with a fine 46.7, and then ran a wonderful anchor lap (45.6) to give the Bruins a record-setting mile relay win.

The crowd favorite, though, was Gerry Lindgren, Washington State's tiny distance man. Lindgren weighs perhaps 125 pounds, soaking wet and wearing lead-weighted shoes, and looks like a happy munchkin straight out of the Wizard of Oz. His running belies his frame, and he set a blistering pace to kill of his competition in the three-mile run after a half-mile. The applause grew with each leap, but Lindgren grew tired without competition, and just pounded along with a happy smile, lapping two men to win by at least 20 yards.

There were other highlights — Troy's Lennox Miller winning both the 100 and 220 dashes, backwards-leaping Dick Fosbury edging Cal soph Clarence Johnson to take his second straight title in the high jump at 7 feet, and Oregon's incredible milers sweeping the first four places, but after all the individual heroics, it came back to USC, and the thought that they may be the best college track team ever.

The last image I have of the meet is of O. J. Simpson, a symbol of superlative athletic ability but only a comparative spearcarrier in the Trojan cast, leaning on a post and watching one of the last events with the calm that comes of absolute confidence. Some people had to be shown how great the Trojans were, but O. J. Knew.

Hamilton Boxer To Get Chance In Olympic Trials

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman who has fought more than most professionals is among 11 boxers who will represent the West in the final tryouts for the U.S. Olympic team.

He is Michael Taylor, 24, who has had more than 70 amateur bouts. Saturday night at San Francisco's Winterland, Taylor won the Western Regional Olympic Trials' 132½-pound title with a decision over Mike Ortiz of Las Cruces, N.M. before a crowd of 3,000.

The 11 Western champs will go to Toledo, Ohio, for the Olympic finals in September. Taylor's coach, William Ross of Hamilton, will coach the Olympic team.

Arson Suspected In Stable Fire

REVERE, Mass. (UPI)—The state fire marshal's office today was to investigate a stable fire which killed 10 thoroughbreds and a stable pony and injured at least four other horses at Suffolk Downs.

A track official said the fire, which broke out about 6 p.m. EDT yesterday, may have been the work of an arsonist. The loss was estimated at more than $100,000.

Fire Chief Alfred Long said, "It was an open area and there was nothing in the barn to catch fire." Two smaller fires were discovered in washrooms earlier in the day and were extinguished quickly.

BOWLING TIPS

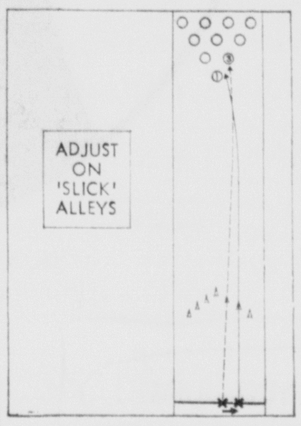
By DON CARTER



If your ball keeps sliding a little to the right of the 1-3 pocket, could be that even if your form is OK, you'll never get the ball buried where you wish because of "slick" alleys. Try moving a board to the right in this case. Then you'll have more of an angle on the pocket.

Clippers Get Week's Rest After Victory

The Clippers, who downed Houston 3-0 yesterday before 5,802 fans in the Oakland Coliseum, play at Dallas Saturday in a North American Soccer League game.

NOVATO VS. TERRA LINDA

Prep Baseball Showdown Tomorrow

The Marin County Athletic League baseball title will be decided tomorrow.

Novato High, one game down, takes on league-leading Terra Linda and dynamo-worker Mike Timmel at 4 p.m. at Albert Field, San Rafael, in a game that will decide it all.

A Novato victory would give co-championship to each team and would necessitate a playoff Friday for a spot in the Redwood Tournament of Champions. A Terra Linda triumph would give the Trojans undisputed title.

According to Novato coach Bob Aune, this will not be a duel of aces pitting Timmel against junior wonderboy Russ Dillon.

McNally is no slouch either. He's lost only once in league play, a 1-0 tearjerker against Drake. He's 3-1. Dillon, the fastballer who sometimes has control problems, is 6-1 and shut out the Trojans last time around.

"We had trouble getting on base against Dillon," Payan said. "His move to first gives us a lot of trouble. I think its questionable but the umps don't agree with me. He's a good pitcher but so is Mike."

Timmel is 9-0 in league play and has a shutout over Lincoln High, the top-hitting prep team in San Francisco. Not overpowering, he can throw any number of pitches, including a curve, fast ball, knuckler, slider and changeup.

The grand finale will mark the first time in two years that Marin Catholic has not been involved in the windup fireworks. The Wildcats had tied for the title the past two seasons.

In other 4 o'clock games, Marin Catholic hosts Drake and San Rafael visits Redwood.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, May 20, the 141st day of 1968 with 225 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase. The morning stars are Saturn and Venus. The evening stars are Mercury and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1506 Christopher Columbus died in Spain.

In 1902 Cuba became a Republic as American occupation under Gen. Leonard Wood came to an end.

In 1927 Charles Lindbergh began his solo flight from New York to Paris in the Spirit of St. Louis. He landed at the French capital 38½ hours later.

A thought for the day — American writer Charles Dudley Warner said, "What small potatoes we all are, compared with what we might be."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

'WORST HAND'

"This was the worst hand of the night," Ben told me as he scribbled on a freshly laundered tablecloth. "They started out by taking two diamond tricks and then led spades to dummy's ace. I drew two rounds of trumps with the king and queen. With my luck, the trumps didn't break."

The rest of his tale was soon told. Ben abandoned trumps to lead out the top clubs, but West ruffed the king of clubs and led a trump. Since that left only one trump in the dummy Ben couldn't ruff out the queen of clubs. Down one.

SYMPATHY

Since bridge players are noted for their sympathetic dispositions, I gave Ben the comfort he expected. "You had it coming to you," I told him cheerfully. "Your contract was ice cold in spite of the bad breaks in hearts and clubs."

As a sympathetic reader you can see for yourself how Bad Break Ben should have played the hand. Decide on the right play before you read on.

JACK LEAD

After drawing two rounds of trumps with the king and queen and cashing the ace of clubs, declarer should lead the jack of clubs, deliberately losing the trick to East's queen. Ben's fatal error was trying to cash the king of clubs.

East returns a spade, and South ruffs. Now declarer leads good clubs, discarding losers from the dummy if West fails to ruff. Whenever West ruffs, dummy overruffs with the ace of trumps and returns a trump to South's jack. Declarer then makes the rest of the tricks with his good clubs.

DAILY QUESTION

♠—K Q 8 3
♥—8
♦—A 9 8 4
♣—Q 8 7 2.
What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

The hand isn't quite worth an opening bid. Change the queen of clubs to the king, and the hand would be worth a bid of one diamond (some experts would prefer to bid one club).

Silver Display

FRANKFORT Ky. (AP) — One of the most beautiful and unusual exhibits at the Old State House museum of the Kentucky Historical Society here is a set of sterling silver. It was given to the battleship "Kentucky" in 1898 by citizens of Kentucky and returned to the Commonwealth upon the ship's retirement from service.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Inflation Hedges Need Good Growth

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. My husband once bought five stocks on your advice. Now he is gone and I turn to you again. I have $20,000 to invest for safety, yield and a hedge against inflation. I'd like to help seven grandchildren to become teachers like their parents. I'd appreciate your advice—M.D.

A. Space doesn't permit sharing fully with column readers your fine letter.

Your husband's earlier purchases should be held. On your $20,000 investment I believe you'll have to sacrafice some income to gain the growth needed to offset inflation. Time is fortunately in your favor since your grandchildren are all under 10 years.

Because bank stocks have been laggards and are priced attractively, I'm recommending Chemical Bank N.Y. Trust for its pattern of rising earnings and 4 per cent yield. I like Gulf Oil, third-largest crude producer, because 1968's estimated earnings produce a reasonable price-earnings ratio of 12. My third choice, Stewart-Warner, is somewhat cyclical but should do well for long-term holders.

One hundred shares each of the first two and 200 of the third will add $70 to your monthly income and the growth that I expect in these issues over the years should help with educational expenses.

Q. While discussing tax-exempt bonds with a neighbor, he said that some utility dividends are exempt from federal income tax. Which companies, may I ask?—S.G.

A. A few utilities and an occasional industrial stock pay dividends that are partially tax-exempt.

Accounting practices within the corporations and federal tax laws applying thereto create this advantage because dividends in part represent a return of capital. Deduction percentages are subject to change year by year as is the list of companies offering the tax benefit.

East Bay Airline Buys Major Bank

OAKLAND (AP) — The First Western Bank & Trust Co., eighth largest bank in California, has been bought by World Airways Inc., Oakland-based charter line.

First Western has 86 branches in California and $900 million in assets. The transaction was announced yesterday by World Airways President Edward J. Daly, and James Ling, chief executive of Ling-Temco-Vought Inc.

Insurance Firm Votes Against July Dividend

SAN FRANCISCO (BW) — The directors of Insurance and Securities, Inc., have voted to omit the fiscal year end dividend usually paid in July, according to Jerome C. Eppler, chairman of the board.

NEW STORE MARKS EXPANSION

Marin Fabric Center, relocated from 874 to 836 Fourth Street, San Rafael, has acquired three times its former space for new lines and new departments. Mrs. Samuel Mason, assistant manager (left) and Mrs. Robert Meisner, store manager (center) display some of the new fabrics that are being added. The store has entrances on Fourth Street and Fifth Avenue and from a customers' parking lot at the side of the building. (Independent-Journal photo).

San Rafael Soldier Gets Bronze Star

He is Sp/5 Paul D. Regalia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virginio Regalia of 7 Clark Street.

After a month's leave at home, Regalia has returned to Vietnam for six months of duty. He is a 1963 graduate of San Rafael High School and a 1966 graduate of Oregon Technical Institute, Klamath Falls, Ore., where he majored in diesel mechanics.

SP/5 PAUL D. REGALIA

Czechs Get Pressured On Troops

PRAGUE (UPI)—The Soviet Union is putting pressure on Independent-minded Czech leaders to station Soviet troops in Czechoslovakia under provisions of the Warsaw Pact, informed sources said today.

The Soviet demand was made during the current visit of Soviet Defense Minister Andrei Grechko and was described as a "counter measure against the reorganized strategy of NATO," the sources said.

Meantime, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, who arrived here Friday, moved today to the Karlovy Vary spa after receiving assurances by Czech leaders that their new style of Communism would not lead them away from Moscow.

Kosygin was to undergo a treatment for a reported gall bladder ailment at the spa. Grechko remained in Prague for a series of conferences with Czech leaders. It was during these sessions that Grechko reportedly put forward the Soviet demand for stationing Warsaw Pact troops on Czech soil. Official sources had no comment on the report.

Now, if your windshield needs replacing you can get the safer L-O-F windshield. It "gives" on impact to cushion shock—tends to bulge instead of break. We have it for replacement for all U.S. cars back through 1960.
